Police chief issues warning

Romulus Police Chief Donald Flood today issued a warning that he has asked his department to "crack-down on merchants who are selling alcoholic beverages to minors."

"We are checking up on and investigating those people who violate the law," Chief Flood said. "We have received complaints from citizens who have informed us that liquor is being sold to minors. Our department will act swiftly to stop and prosecute those who violating the law."

State law prohibits the sale of alcoholic beverages to anyone under the age of 21.

Did council set record?

In what must be a record for City Council, councilmen last Tuesday finished their agenda in less than 15 minutes.

"I can't recall when we had a shorter meeting than this," said councilman John Lewkowicz. "I think we were all surprised by the quickness that we went through this agenda."

Morelli named police dispatcher

Huron Township has named Andrew Morelli, a part-time police officer with the department for the past six months, as its police dispatcher.

Morelli, an ex-Detroit police officer, is trained in computers and has specialized LEIN (Law Enforcement Information Network) training.

"It will be the first time we have had anyone with a considerable amount of police experience on the board," said township police chief Joe Carney. "Officer Morelli is the best qualified person for the job."

The vacancy on the part-time force will be filled by Joseph White, another former Detroit police officer.

Kiwanians set pancake breakfast

The Romulus Kiwanis Club will hold its annual Pancake and Craft Festival on Sat., Nov. 6 at the Progressive Club Hall, 11580 Ozga Road at Five Points.

The "all you can eat" pancakes and two-sausage breakfast costs $2.50 for adults and $1.50 for children. Children under five will be served free.

Proceeds for the project will be donated to help support the indigent children's dental program, of the Forney Clement Foundation (Children's Hospital).

For further information or ticket information, telephone 942-0499.

'Fairest of them all'

An attractive LaVerne Manion had the honor of serving as Romulus High's Homecoming Queen during Friday's gala festivities that was perfect with only one exception. The pretty LaVerne watched her Eagles succumb to a Woodhaven team that wrecked the night with a 14-0 victory.

City hires deputy assessor

Acting upon a recommendation of Mayor William M. Oakley, City Council gave the administration the go-ahead to interview and hire an Ohio man to serve as deputy assessor.

With little debate, council approved the mayor's recommendation to hire Richard E.

North, who is presently a resident of Upper Sandusky, Ohio.

In his communique to council, Mayor Oakley noted that he had interviewed Mr. North "and concluded that he is a competent and capable individual for our city to employ."

Mrs. Higgins gets new assignment

Valerie Smith Higgins, who served as Strawberry Festival parade coordinator and also is a parttime staffer for the Associated Newspapers, has another key assignment.

Mrs. Higgins was appointed by Belleville City Council Monday night to serve as the municipal liaison to Omnicom, the company responsible for bringing cable TV to the city.

Carl Morris honored posthumously

Council picks name for new post office

City Council last Tuesday evening honored "A friend of Romulus", Carl Morris. The honor was paid to the civic and business leader posthumously.

Council voted unanimously to name the newly proposed postal facility for Mr. Morris.

Acting upon a recommendation offered by Councilman Jimmie Raspberry who was a longtime friend of Mr. Morris's, council wasted little time in choosing the name of the future postal office.

"Throughout our country certain people have been honored by naming public and governmental building for these great men and women," Raspberry told council. "and I feel it appropriate and proper that Mr. Morris, who has made this city a better place to live in and was most active in convincing federal employees that this city should get a post office that we should honor him by naming the structure after him."

Council concurred.

Mr. Morris, 66, died two weeks ago after suffering a heart attack.

A prominent businessman who was the founder and co-owner of the Huron Valley Oil Company, Mr.

Morris served as a member and later as President of the Romulus Board of Education for 28 years. He was also a member of the Board of Directors at the Peoples Hospital Authority.

Mr. Morris was a charter member of the Kiwanis Club in Romulus and served as president of the Wayne Intermediate School Board.

Respected by members of the U.S. Congress, State Senate, House of Representatives and known for his objectivity, Mr. Morris became a symbol of "what was right with a community".

Just in time for winter

City completes road repairs

Embarking on one of the most ambitious road maintenance programs in the city of Romulus' history, the Romulus Department of Public Works has completed road repairs in key and vital areas and intersections, according to Dave Paul, DPW director.

Using a new and what Paul labeled as a "very sophisticated tar", employees of Highway Maintenance Incorporated — the successful bidder for the project — have virtually eliminated road repair problems on Shooks Rd., Goddard, Tobine and Harrison.

There was a wide range of repairs the city was forced to deal with caused by the elements, Paul pointed out. He will be watching what the elements do with the new repair material to determine the feasibility of utilizing it for future repairs.

"On Shook, we were fortunate to get a new piece of equipment that literally picked up the existing asphalt road and laid it back down for the base," Paul said. "Then we went in and put down two coats of this double chip seal."

Paul revealed that he first heard of the new material and process during the "bidding process" when city officials in Southfield decided to seek a company to repair its roads. After closer inspection and after examining the repairs with the same product at Farmington Hills, Paul recommended to the city that Romulus should also use the new material.

"I wanted to see how this material holds up during the winter before we went ahead with other maintenance work," Paul said. "If it manages to hold its own against the elements, then obviously we will be using it for our future needs."

Cost was one major reason why Paul and the city were willing to experiment. It costs the city approximately $10,000 to slurry Goddard with the new material; it would have cost taxpayers $300,000 to resurface it.

Goddard was basically a problem, where nature eroded longitudinal cracks in the road surface, and those grooves were getting worse. The city sealed the cracks with the slurry.

The "chip and seal" program has been utilized on Tobine, Shook and Harrison Rds., as well as on Elmview, Craig, Sharon and Schultz. The program eventually will cost $50,000 to complete.

Paul said the city also has a project in progress in conjunction with the Wayne County Road Commission at Grant and Eureka Rds. where a passing lane and traffic light will be installed.

"It's a very congested traffic area," Paul said, "and the new improvements should improve traffic flow."

Here come those salt trucks; snow must be on its way

You know winter is just around the corner when the city begins purchasing salt.

City Council last Tuesday approved a recommendation from Mayor William M. Oakley to award the bid for road salt to the low bidder, International Salt Company.

International Salt's $17.76 per ton beat out its closest competitor, Morton Salt. The city believes it will need 1,450 tons of the white stuff to battle the ice and snow this winter.

It'll be on Sunday

Huron 'traditional' for 'trick-or-treaters'

Unlike its neighbor, Romulus, Huron Township Board of Trustees voted last week to allow treat-and-treaters to celebrate Halloween on... Halloween.

Because the annual "Trick-or-Treat" night falls this year on Sunday, (October 31), Romulus City Council and the Romulus Board of Education accepted a recommendation to switch the Trick-or-Treat night to Saturday night, allowing children of school age to get rest or attend church.

However, Huron will remain traditional.

Township clerk Mary Lou Carey pointed out that she had received numerous calls from parents who were concerned that switching nights may cause a problem.

After a short debate, the township trustees decided that Sunday would be the safest for children because the traffic would be lighter.

Teen-age drivers returning from a football game and the possibility of drunk drivers on the road Saturday night helped sway the trustees to keep the traditional night for Trick-or-Treating.

One sophist added: "It doesn't really matter what day we have it. Doesn't it seem that on that particular night it always seems to rain?"

E.T. help Eagles

The amicable E.T. paused on his extra-celestial trip to offer visiting Woodhaven a word of advice: "Woodhaven phone home". Even the presence of the celluloid star didn't help coach Norb Glover's Eagles who fell to their rivals. The float, created by the seniors, was the overwhelming favorite of the judges, and won first place during Romulus High's Homecoming parade.

A royal Romulus happening

Local savings bank elects first women to Board of Directors

The Board of Directors of Wyandotte Savings Bank has elected Cecile Renaud Gorno, Mary Ellen Meyer and James S. Mush as new members of the Board effective October 21. Mrs. Gorno and Mrs. Meyer are the first women directors to serve on the WSB Board.

Mrs. Gorno has been a resident of Wyandotte for over 42 years. She received a Bachelor of Arts degree from Eastern Michigan University and has taught in both the public and parochial school systems of Wyandotte. She is currently an executive officer in the Gorno Steel and Processing Company of Detroit, founded by her husband, Joseph Gorno, who was a WSB director until his recent death.

Active in community affairs, Mrs. Gorno is a member of the League of Catholic Women and the American Association of University Women. She is a volunteer for the Red Cross, the Senior Volunteer Program at Mercy College and has served on the board of directors of the Parish Council at St. Mary's College in South Bend, Indiana.

Mrs. Meyer received her Bachelor of Science degree in Education from the University of Michigan and a Masters Degree in Education from Eastern Michigan University. Mrs. Meyer was employed as a teacher for 12 years in the Wyandotte school system.

Owner of Wind Run Farm, a Morgan horse breeding farm in Dexter, where she resides, Mrs. Meyer also is an officer in Meyer's Cleaners, Inc., in Ann Arbor. With her election, Mrs. Meyer continues a family banking tradition. She is the daughter of Mark V. Yost, who was chairman of the board of Norwood Precision Products in Melvindale. The 25-year-old company, which employs 100 people, manufactures aerospace products and is a leading supplier of precision parts to the U.S. aircraft industry.

As a testament to Norwood's high quality, the company received a Military Award for Excellence from the Small Business Administration last April. Mr. Mush is a graduate of Cass Tech High School and attended Henry Ford Community College. A Grosse Ile resident, Mr. Mush also owns and operates a cattle ranching business in Northern Michigan.

Recieves modeling award

Romulus grad has 'the face' to make it with 'Click' magazine

By STEVE O'LEARY (Feature Writer)

Sheron Hancock, a 1979 graduate of Romulus High School, has been honored as the recipient of 'Click' Magazine's New Faces Modeling Award.

Currently a Junior at Eastern Michigan University, Sheron is carrying a 3.4 grade point average as she pursues a double-major of Computer Business and Fashion Merchandising.

Sheron says that she heard about the modeling contest for the L.A. based magazine from a friend, decided to enter, and then "One day I just got this call from the west coast saying that I had won!"

When asked how she felt when receiving the news, Sheron laughingly replied "To tell you the truth, I thought to myself 'It's about time!'"

"You see," she went on to say, "I've been modeling in contests for about two years now, and I've never won, but afterwards all these people would come up to me and give me their card and say that they thought I should have won."

Sheron's prizes include a $2,000 contract with the magazine, a trip to Jamaica ("a sort of working vacation," she says), a professional photographic portfolio, and two covers of 'Click' magazine, the first of which should be on local newsstands by the first of November.

As far as modeling goes, Sheron says that her interests lie "In photographic modeling, as opposed to runway modeling, because I want to be more involved in the fashion end of it, after all, fashion is my second major at school."

After conceding that winning the contest "Was a real, real good break," Sheron added that besides her classroom activities at Eastern, she's also involved in intramural sports, and "I haven't had a chance yet, but I plan on joining a few clubs, particularly the NAACP and the Computer and Law clubs."

She also said that she "Plans on going on to Law School," so it's quite an understatement when she says "I guess I'm going to be busy for awhile."

Sumpter battles toxic waste

Will Site Board approve application?

Sumpter Township residents were to be informed last night whether state officials, the Department of Natural Resources, and the 9-member Site Approval Board would allow City Sand & Landfill to dump toxic waste at its present facility located south of Willow Road about a mile west of Sumpter Road.

City Sand & Landfill owners last year applied for a permit under the state's 1979 Hazardous Waste Management Act to build a liquid hazardous waste treatment plant in Detroit. City Sand's 80-acre landfill in Sumpter, if permission is granted by the Site Approval Board, could accept wastes from any source, as long as state standards are met.

Township officials and residents have been fighting the move since they were first made aware of the application. If the Site Approval Board should grant approval, officials said the township would have no other recourse but to continue its fight in court.

Last night's session climaxed a series of public hearings which, according to state law, must be held before permission for hazardous waste is either granted or denied.

A township official said yesterday that he doubted that the board would approve such a controversial application since a vast majority of the populace has indicated they were against it.

A community of approximately 11,000 residents, Sumpter has had its problems with the landfill in the past. Jim Reeves, township supervisor, once labeled City Sand and Landfill "as the septic tank of Detroit."

The Site Approval Board has heard a wide spectrum of arguments over the past six months and must now decide whether to approve or deny the permit.

According to past dialogue, the toxic waste would be embedded atop a clay bed, composed primarily of water. However, some residents fear that the waste will seep into groundwater and eventually find its way into the wells.

Although state law prohibits "contact between groundwater and constructed portions of landfill" the question remains as to who would be able to monitor when and if a leakage does occur.

As one resident put it, during last week's four-hour session, "You (pointing to the board) don't have to live here. If a leak does happen, we're eating toxic poison through our gardens, breathing it through the air ... please consider us and our children."

'Sour Applefest'?

Wonder if these are sour apples? Little Erika Rakotz and Brian Delano seemed miles away from the Huron Applefest festivities as they paraded through the center of town recently. The Applefest attracted more than 20,000 visitors and was labeled "a huge success", according to township officials.

58 seek manager's job

Belleville City Council learned Monday night that more than 50 persons have applied for the City Manager's position. With a Nov. 15 deadline to submit applications for the job created by the recent passage of the new City Charter, that number may jump to as high as 100.

"Because the edition of the Michigan Municipal Review has not as yet been published," said Agnes Frisch, city clerk, "We believe that there will be a lot more applicants before the deadline date."

Council, charged with selecting the final candidate, has set a special meeting for 8 p.m., Oct. 26 to review some of the applicants' resumes.

"It may seem like an enormous task to interview all these people," Mrs. Frisch said, "however, many applicants immediately will be disqualified when council determines that they really don't have adequate qualifications for the position."

There are presently 58 applications on file for the city manager's job.

MOTORCYCLE MANIA: Making the old ROAR again

by STEVE O'LEARY
NP Special Writer

Marcus Commander of Wayne is the type of person that will never be caught driving a car with an automatic transmission. He is a man who likes to be physically involved with the world so it should come as no surprise that he likes his motorcycles the same way, rough around the edges.

His hobby is motorcycle restoration. Classic motorcycle restoration, to be more specific. His garage is filled with bikes, from British motorcycles like Norton and Royal Enfield to his son's Mo-Ped.

"Most collectors," says Commander, "are into the British motorcycles more than they are anything else. You'll find some people into the Italian and German little bit of everything I guess. It's a challenge.

Unlike say, a Honda?

"Exactly," he said. "It's nothing like the Japanese bikes — the Japanese stuff is just too perfect. Look at a Norton, and what do you see? You see hoses, cables, oil lines, wires... it's that amalgamation of nightmarish stuff that makes it a real motorcycle."

"On the other hand," he continued, "look at a Honda, and you'll see maybe one or two hoses and that's it. Everything is out of sight. It's all painted and polished nice, but feel of it, it's plastic! I do use a Honda when I go dirt biking with my son though. They're good for that."

Commander has been interested in motorcycles for, "about 24 years

Marcus Commander's prized restored Norton motorcycle

let myself get down to only one bike, which was a BMW."

Over the years, Commander reckons he's had "around 300 motorcycles of his own. His current 'pride and joy,' as such, is his Royal Enfield. "It's original, not

"re no more Matchless, there're no more Nortons. No more BSA's, Arians, Panthers, Francis Barnetts... Triumph is still hanging there though, at least for now. The list is His newest acquisition is an English Matchless, for which he restored," he says, "even the tires on it are original."

But what about new models of these classic British bikes, wouldn't that be easier than looking for months for a Royal Enfield fender?

"Well," says Commander, "There are no more Enfields, there-traded a 650 Benelli, and Italian bike.

"It really gets me," says Commander, "These guys riding today. They think the only motorcycles around are Hondas and Kawasakis. You can mention Norton and they don't have the foggiest what you're talking about." Norton? Wasn't that Ralph Kramdon's upstairs neighbor?

Getting spare or original parts for the British bikes is no easy thing to

of which are for a particular kind of motorcycle, such as the Norton Owners Association of Michigan to which Marcus belongs.

"I recently turned down an offer bikes, but they're few and far between, because those bikes just don't bring the top-dollar when you're ready to sell, while the English ones do."

But what makes certain motorcycles desirable to collectors?

"Well, take for instance the Norton Manx," Commander explained. "It's got a racing history as long as both of your arms. At one time they were only made for the factory riders, and then they made some and sold them to privateers for racing. Every time they went on the track they beat everything in sight. As a rule, that is. Today, a Manx would cost from $3,500 on up, depending on the condition."

"There's a certain nostalgia that goes along with a British motorcycle, or, for that matter, a British car," Commander says. "Damn things," he animatedly pointed to the English bikes parked in his garage, "sometimes they work, and sometimes they don't. I don't know if it's the quality of the materials they use, the craftsmanship, just a now. My first bike was a brand new Harley 215 Hummer.

"I guess I've had just about every kind of machine that you could name at one time or another, from Harley-Davidson to Honda to a '59 Horax, which was probably the rarest one I've ever owned. Italian, German, and even Communist bikes."

"In English machines alone," says Commander, "I've had Nortons, Matchless, Triumph, BSA, Royal Enfield and a few others."

In 1968, Commander became serious about motorcycle restoration. "That was when I started putting stuff together that was junk, and as the years went by I just got more and more serious about it."

"I'd always liked British motorcycles, and I've always had a British machine around. It's not at all unusual for me to have six, seven, eight motorcycles around like I do now. I've had so many motorcycles at one time that I couldn't get in the garage. At the other end, I got real slack in '78 and

Brawl ends in death

A 32-year-old Westland man has been charged with first-degree murder in connection with the death of a Garden City man early last Thursday morning.

Ronald Laginess will be in 18th District Court Monday for a pre-trial examination on the murder charge, as well as a second charge of possession of a firearm in the commission of a felony. He is being held in the Wayne County Jail.

According to Westland Police detectives, the victim, Michael Joseph Burgy, 25, of Garden City, had been drinking with friends, when an argument broke out at the Laginess home on Newburgh Road in Westland.

Police officers said a fracas broke out, during which Laginess apparently retrieved a handgun kept in the home. Burgy allegedly was struck several times on the head and shot in the back of the head during a scuffle with Laginess.

Police estimate that Burgy was killed at 5:30 Oct. 7, although the incident was not reported until about an hour later by Laginess, apparently from a neighbor's house.

Economy takes its fall on area residents

Wayne County's poor economy is being reflected in ways other than the unemployment lines. The new 1982-83 county budget, released by the Board of Auditors for review by County Commissioners Tuesday, indicates an $11 million increase in hospitalization for indigent and mental patients, and staffing for a record level of prisoners being held. "Increased costs for medical treatment of prisoners and workers' compensation claims and benefits will add another $3.7 million to the already deficit-ridden county budget now estimated to be $22.351 million in the red," Commissioner Richard E. Manning said. According to the budget report, indigent persons receiving treatment under the county hospitalization program will rise by $5.448 million; increased number of County mental patients receiving inpatient care at state institutions by $3.5 million and continuing high level of jail inmate census, requiring expanded use of the Jail Detention Annex at "M" Building, Eloise, $1.933 million. Prisoner hospitalization will go up $2.132 million and workers' claims and benefits $1.592 million.

A bridge of friendship

Literally trapped because she had no means of getting to-and-fro from her house due to an amputated leg, Mrs. Thurmond (in wheelchair) received some welcomed help recently from the local Lions Club whose members pulled their talents and finances together to build a ramp for the lady in distress. "She's as happy as ever", one of the Lions' members remarked.

Lions Club comes to rescue of damsel in distress

The man who works for the betterment of mankind, is a man who stands above all others. And there are such men in Inkster. They're banded together in the Lions' Club, and when they heard of Mrs. M.L. Thurmond's plight, they rolled up their sleeves and helped. Mrs. Thurmond, whose right leg had been recently amputated, had difficulty getting in and out of her home at 3746 Henry Street. She needed a ramp, so the Lions Club members dug into their coffers and came up with the money to purchase the necessary wood to build the ramp. Amongst the Lions there were carpenters and people who were willing to donate their time and effort. The end result - Mrs. Thurmond got her ramp and now she can coast down and roll up to the door whenever she desires. Those who spearheaded the drive for the ramp include Paul Berry, Treasurer of the Lions' Club; Joe Davis, councilman and also a Lions' member; John Suchon, president of the club and Dave Parker, and many others. "Mrs. Thurmond was very pleased," said Berry, "and you should have been there when this project was completed. There were tears in her eyes. She was literally a prisoner in her own home because there was no easy way out or back in."

Movers and shakers

"Movers & Shakers", a family nature walk, will be held at the Nature Center of Oakwoods Metropark near Flat Rock on Sunday, October 24 at 2 p.m. How animals and plants prepare for the icy season of winter is the topic of this nature walk. Participants will examine wood-chuck dens, tree cavities, fields and woodlots for some insight into the mysteries of migration and hibernation — plus some other clues that indicate that nature is "getting ready" for winter. For information, Oakwoods Metropark, 697-9181.

Tell me about your high gas heating bills and I'll tell you how you can save up to 20%* with Ameri-Therm.

For years I've talked with people who are tired of wasting fuel and money. Gas rates keep going up, so they come to me for advice. Every day, for homeowners like you, I correct the money-wasting problem of gas energy loss with Ameri-Therm® Vent Dampers. The problem is very common: When a furnace, boiler or water heater shuts off, warm air is quickly lost up the chimney. Energy escapes, but you still end up paying for it. People want to save as much as they can, so I tell them to keep heat inside with an Ameri-Therm Vent Damper.

Ameri-Therm is the thermally actuated vent damper that's:

- Proven in millions of locations.
- Saves up to 20%* on fuel bills.
- Popular choice of American homeowners.
- Five year limited warranty.
- Thermally actuated to operate efficiently with no wires, electricity, or other power source.
- Eligible for 15% tax credit.
- Available for gas furnaces, boilers and water heaters.

Pick a winner

From the looks of all of these cute and charming contestants, the New Boston Huron Apple Dimpling and Apple Jack Contest judges must have had a huge problem trying to pick the winners. It isn't easy when they're all good. But when all the judging was done and over with, the Apple Dimpling crown went to Mary Lou Partin and the Apple Jack was Daniel Taylor.

Mahalak announces funding for area bridge repairs

Completion of a priority system for bridge repairs under the Critical Bridge Program may mean aid for three more bridges in the area.

State Representative Edward E. Mahalak (D-Romulus) announced today that the Department of Transportation has recently completed guidelines for the process of prioritizing bridges eligible for funding under the Critical Bridge Program.

The three bridges most likely to be considered for repair or replacement in 1983 are:

- Wayne Road over the lower Rouge River.
- Petersburg Road over the Macon Drain.
- Dennison Road over South Branch Macon Drain.

"Although these three bridges are now high on the Critical Bridge priority list, final funding will depend upon the amount of federal funds received by the state," said Mahalak.

"Five million dollars was appropriated for the Critical Bridge Program for fiscal year 1982-83 from transportation funds," he said.

As chairman of the House Appropriations Subcommittee on Transportation, Mahalak said the $5,000,000 was made despite the Department of Management and Budget's recommendation of $2,500,000 in funding.

CITY OF ROMULUS

CABLE COMMUNICATIONS FRANCHISE ORDINANCE (AMENDED SECTIONS)

Section 1801-512 — Corporate Surety Bond: The Franchisee within thirty (30) days after the effective date of a franchise agreement shall file with the City a corporate surety bond, approved by the Council, in the amount of Four Hundred Thousand ($400,000) Dollars payable to the City conditioned on the Franchisee's completion of the system and provision of the required services within the time schedule set forth in this Ordinance, except for delays in the installation of cable or technical equipment caused by acts of God or other acts or failures to act of someone other than the Franchisee over which the Franchisee has no control. Upon completion of the system in accordance with the terms of this ordinance, said corporate surety bond shall be released by the City.

As Amended:
Section 4.4-5; Section (12) — Corporate Surety Bond: The Franchisee within thirty (30) days after the effective date of a franchise agreement shall file with the City Clerk a corporate surety bond, approved by the Council, in the amount of Two Hundred, Fifty Thousand ($250,000) Dollars payable to the City conditioned on the Franchisee's completion of the system and provision of the required services within the time schedule set forth in this Ordinance, except for delays in the installation of cable or technical equipment caused by acts of God or other acts or failures to act of someone other than the Franchisee over which the Franchisee has no control. Upon completion of the system in accordance with the terms of this Ordinance, said corporate surety bond shall be released by the City.

Section 1801-513 — Line Extensions: It shall be the obligation of the Franchisee to serve all residents of the City, without unjust discrimination, undue preferences or advantages. Franchisee shall extend service to new subscribers at the normal installation charge and monthly rate.

As Amended:
Section 4.4-5; Section (13) — Line Extensions: It shall be the obligation of the Franchisee to make service available to approximately 95% of the residents of the City, who can practically be served, at a minimum rate without unjust discrimination, undue preferences or advantages. Franchisee shall extend service to new subscribers at the normal installation charge and monthly rate. Any other prospective subscriber wishing service may obtain hook-up at a negotiated rate with the Franchisee, on a shared cost basis with the City.

Section 1801-603 — Approval of Transfer: The Franchisee shall not sell, lease, assign, or transfer its system to another nor transfer any rights under this Ordinance or the Franchise Agreement except to a wholly owned subsidiary upon written notice to the City or except upon written approval by the City following an open public hearing, provided that such approval shall not be unreasonably withheld if the vendee, assignee, or lessee has filed with the appropriate official of the City an instrument duly executed, reciting the fact of such sale, assignment of lease, accepting the terms of this Ordinance and agreeing to perform all conditions thereof, however, in the event the Franchisee shall wish to effectuate such a transfer the City shall be notified in writing by means of certified mail delivered to the City Clerk of such intention at least one hundred twenty (120) days prior to the intended transfer and the City shall retain the first option to purchase on terms at least as favorable as the intended transferee. However, in the event the City shall elect to purchase said franchise the price paid shall be fair market value of such franchise as a going concern. If the interpretation of this section or evaluation cannot be agreed upon, it shall be determined by an independent arbitrator chosen and operating pursuant to the rules of the American Arbitration Association.

As Amended:
Section 4.4-6; Section (3) — Approval of Transfer: The Franchisee shall not sell, lease, assign, or transfer its system to another nor transfer any rights under this Ordinance or the Franchise Agreement except to a wholly owned subsidiary or to a lending institution in order to obtain financing in which case the City shall receive written notice and provide written approval, which shall not be unreasonably withheld if the vendee, assignee, or lessee has filed with the City an instrument duly executed, reciting the fact of such sale, assignment of lease, accepting the terms of this Ordinance and agreeing to perform all conditions thereof, however, in the event the Franchisee shall wish to effectuate such a transfer the City shall be notified in writing by means of certified mail delivered to the City Clerk of such intention at least ninety (90) days prior to the intended transfer and the City shall retain the first option to purchase on terms at least as favorable as the intended transferee. However, in the event the City shall elect to purchase said franchise the price paid shall be fair market value of such franchise as a going concern.

Section 1801-701 — The Franchisee shall install, construct, maintain, operate and improve its cable communication system in accordance with the accepted standards of the industry, in conformity with the state of the art and any standards of operation or maintenance for a cable communications system which may be established or issued by the FCC. At such time as technological advances shall become available to the industry and shall be deemed viable, necessary and desirable by the City Council and the Franchisee, the Franchisee shall install such equipment as shall be required by the City.

As Amended:
Section 4.4-7; Section (1) — The Franchisee shall install, construct, maintain, operate and improve its cable communication system in accordance with the accepted standards of the industry, in conformity with the state of the art and any standards of operation or maintenance for a cable communications system which may be established or issued by the FCC. At such time as technological advances shall become available to the industry and shall be deemed viable, necessary and desirable by the City Council and the Franchisee, the Franchisee shall if economically feasible install such equipment as shall be required by the City.

Section 1801-707 — The Franchisee's system shall maintain such capacity, capability and technical standards as will enable it to inter-connect with any other cable communications system located in the Detroit Standard Metropolitan Statistical Area. Any question over the interpretation of this Section shall be referred to the Cable TV Commission.

As Amended:
Section 4.4-7; Section (7) — The Franchisee's System shall maintain such capacity, capability and technical standards as will enable it to inter-connect with any other cable communications system contiguous to the City of Romulus. Any question over the interpretation of this Section shall be referred to the Cable Communications Commission.

Section 1801-902 — Use of System by City: The City shall have the right to use the poles, underground conduits, wire and/or fixtures of the Franchisee, within the City limits, for a traffic signal control system and/or police and fire alarm systems.

As Amended:
Section 4.4-9; Section (2) — Use of System by City: The City shall have the right to use the poles, underground conduits, wires and/or fixtures of the Franchisee, within the City limits, for a traffic signal control system and/or police and fire alarm systems with Franchisee's consent.

Section 1801-910 — Subscriber rates and charges: No Franchisee may increase any rate or charge for cable communication service as set forth in this ordinance, or alter any classification, contract, rule, regulation, or practice as to result in an increase in its schedule of rates or charges for such service without the prior approval of such increased rate or charge or alteration in its classification, contract, rule, regulation or practice by the City Council after public hearing thereon. Such public hearing shall be noticed at least ten (10) days in advance in a newspaper of general circulation in the City of Romulus. At said public hearing, the Franchisee shall set forth in detail the basis for its requested increase in rates or charges for service or alteration in its classification, contract, rule, regulation or practice, including the reasonable and lawfulness thereof. In the determination of just, reasonable and lawful rates and charges, the Council shall review and approve or disapprove an increase of subscriber service rates on the basis of what is fair to the consumer and fair to the Franchisee, and shall include the following factors: faithfulness of the Franchisee in abiding by the terms of this Ordinance; the quality of the service, efficiency of the Franchisee; revenues and profits from all services offered; depreciated original cost of the cable plant and associated equipment; a fair rate of return with respect to the cost of borrowing and rates of return on investments having corresponding risk; and the rate of inflation as measured by the Consumer Price Index or other substitute measurements of inflation established by the United States Government. The value of the franchise, good will, and the value of the going concern shall not be amortized as an expense and a return shall not be paid on any of these values. If the City fails to render a written decision either accepting, rejecting or modifying Franchisee's request within one hundred eighty (180) days of the Franchisee's request, the Franchisee shall thereafter be entitled to put its proposed new rates into effect.

As Amended:
Section 4.4-9; Section (10) — Subscriber rates and charges: No Franchisee may increase any rate or charge for cable communication service as set forth in this ordinance, or alter any classification, contract, rule, regulation, or practice as to result in an increase in its schedule of rates or charges for such service without the prior approval of such increased rate or charge or alteration in its classification, contract, rule, regulation or practice by the City Council after public hearing thereon. Such public hearing shall be noticed at least ten (10) days in advance in a newspaper of general circulation in the City of Romulus. At said public hearing, the Franchisee shall set forth in detail the basis for its requested increase in rates or charges for service or alteration in its classification, contract, rule, regulation or practice, including the reasonableness and lawfulness thereof.

In the determination of just, reasonable and lawful rates and charges, the Council shall review and approve or disapprove an increase of subscriber rates on the basis of what is fair to the consumer and fair to the Franchisee, and shall include the following factors: faithfulness of the Franchisee in abiding by the terms of this Ordinance; the quality of the service, efficiency of the Franchisee; revenues and profits from all services offered; depreciated original cost of the cable plant and associated equipment; a fair rate of return with respect to the cost of borrowing and rates of return on investments having corresponding risk; and the rate of inflation as measured by the Consumer Price Index or other substitute measurements of inflation established by the United States Government. The value of the franchise, good will, and the value of the going concern shall not be amortized as an expense and a return shall not be paid on any of these values. If the City fails to render a written decision either accepting, rejecting or modifying Franchisee's request within ninety (90) days of the Franchisee's request, the Franchisee shall thereafter be entitled to put its proposed new rates into effect.

Section 1801-1302 — The Commission shall consist of five (5) residents of the City, four (4) of whom will be appointed by the Mayor and one (1) by the Romulus School Board — all with Council approval. Each member shall serve a term of three (3) years; provided, however, that appointments to the first commission shall be for such terms as follows: two (2) members for 2½ years; two (2) members for 2 years; and one (1) member for a 3 year term. Any vacancy in the office shall be filled by the Mayor with Council approval for the remainder of the term. No employee or person with ownership interest in a cable television franchise granted pursuant to this Ordinance shall be eligible for membership on the Commission. Members of the Commission may be compensated at a rate to be established and determined from time to time in accordance with the Charter for the City of Romulus.

As Amended:
Section 4.4-13; Section (2) — The Commission shall consist of five (5) residents of the City, appointed by the majority vote of the Council Elect. Each member shall serve a term of three (3) years; provided, however, that appointments to the first commission shall be for such terms as follows: two (2) members for 2½ years; two (2) members for 2 years; and one (1) member for a 3 year term. Any vacancy in the office shall be filled by a majority Council approval for the remainder of the term. No employee or person with ownership interest in a cable communications franchise granted pursuant to this Ordinance shall be eligible for membership on the Commission. Members of the Commission may be compensated at a rate to be established and determined from time to time in accordance with the Charter for the City of Romulus.

At what price nuclear freeze?

There is a proposal on the November ballot calling for a nuclear freeze. Advocates of the freeze claim nuclear war will be prevented by the prevention of the building of more bombs. Opponents of the freeze argue that a freeze would freeze the Russians in a superior position regarding number of bombs and therefore would act as an incentive to the Russians to start a nuclear war.

There doesn't seem to be much logic supporting either position.

The opposition argument that to stop building bombs would be dangerous to national security sounds hollow. First of all, it is unclear whether the Russians do, in fact, have more nuclear bombs than the United States. Secondly, even if they have as much as 50 percent or even 100 percent more bombs, each side has tens of thousands of bombs. That is more than enough for each side to obliterate all life on earth several times over by the explosion of its own arsenal or even a fraction of its own arsenal. Therefore, lack of bombs does not appear to be a military disadvantage to either party.

More importantly, mere numbers of weapons is not as important. Here there is no question that the U.S. has the edge. We are superior in numbers of nuclear submarines which are currently the most effective means of delivering nuclear weapons on target. Airplanes are too easily detected, both for the purposes of launching nuclear vessels and even more so for merely bomb dropping platforms. The state of the art has not progressed so far in terms of armed statelites that they constitute a more serious nuclear threat in terms of delivery capacity than nuclear submarines.

The proponent argument that stopping the building of nuclear weapons will be an effective step in stopping the arms race also appears to lack merit. Much more money is spent on delivery systems than on the bombs themselves. It is the combination of an effective delivery system with the bomb that makes for a dangerous weapon. Simply freezing the number of bombs built would not prevent either country from building an armada of cruise missiles that are relatively cheap to build and, when launched in quantity, impossible to defend against in terms of knocking down all the missiles. Even a small percentage of a large number can get through to totally obliterate an entire continent.

On balance, it appears that the best argument is, in fact, to vote for the nuclear freeze. Not because it will stop nuclear armament. Not because it will stop strategic warfare. But because it is the most effective signal that could presently be given to urge political leaders to seriously look at the disastrous and uneconomic and dangerous overspending on military nuclear delivery systems in both Russia and the United States.

For both countries, it is ruinous economically. For both countries, it increases the danger of nuclear war simply by the increase of power available to military officers. The more buttons we have for colonels to push and the more isolated the colonels from political and economic control, the greater the danger that a nuclear holocaust could be started by the rash action of one idiot, be he Russian or American.

Affirmative Action is not the solution

As a Black man, I resent the implication of the so called Affirmative Action Ordinance that the City Fathers of Inkster are inclined to adopt.

To take the position that Blacks, women and other minorities are academically inferior to their white counterparts is totally repulsive. That is one of the implications effectively communicated when it is proposed that Blacks and other minorities be given premium points on tests to qualify for city employment. These points are allegedly given for their minority status.

I support practical affirmative action, but this is not truly an Affirmative Action Ordinance.

I shudder to think if one of the "protected class" were to become a police officer, unable to read adequately, yet expected to enforce laws he cannot read. I want the best educated, and the officer that tests best to protect the rights of citizens. If we have members of the "protected class" that cannot meet the academic requirements of testing, then this ordinance destroys any incentive to have a good self concept, or for that matter, it stymies any incentive to get the most out of the educational offerings of our schools.

If an individual, who has reached his/her educational maximum, needs the premium points to pass a test, my position would be that he/she is not qualified for the position sought.

Another fallacy of this ordinance is that it gives license to favoritism and cronyism. We have had enough of that already in the City of Inkster. The antinepotism restriction of our charter has been violated by this administration. For too long there has been hanky-panky, with the attempt by City Administrators to wrest control of all City hiring, by circumventing fair methods of selection.

When a previous City Manager, who incidentally was a caucasian, tried to have authority to pick anyone he might choose from the register of candidates, the citizens of Inkster, by their vote, defeated that attempt.

Why can't public hearings be held to acquaint the citizens of the content of this massive ordinance. Thereafter the voters should, again, be given opportunity to express their desire by voting on this issue.

It is significant that this action surfaces just prior to the next City election. Such antics smell, and resemble the barn yard politics of years in the past. Further, if the city is in such grave financial condition, what is the urgency of this ordinance? What effect will recall of laid-off employees have on the goals of this ordinance? The hands of the city are tied by contract agreement.

If we have a problem in hiring members of the "protected class", then I propose that we establish goals for minority hires, and conscientiously, and honestly pursue those goals. It is totally foolhardy for Inkster to pay for the testing of individuals that aren't qualified for positions they seek. We, at all times should seek the best qualified person for any position vacancy in city government.

This Fiscal year, Inkster has spent approximately $2300 with Michigan Municipal League to test individuals that seek employment. Despite the fact that this is less than Inkster has spent in previous years. It would balloon to a much larger figure if this ordinance is adopted, all because of the cronyism aspects of this legislation. I emphasize the fact that I, like many other Blacks resent this action, which by implication, tells me that we are inferior to our white counterparts.

One Councilman pointed out the great success realized from hiring of the protected class under the current civil service policies.

I hastily reviewed both the originally proposed ordinance, and the second proposed ordinance. I found that in one job category under the new ordinance the City would be deficient by one female Police sergeant. If seniority, as well as passing test totals are the primary basis for selection, and a promotable vacancy occurs where the female candidate is ranked second to a male candidate; who gets the promotion? Which takes precedence; the negotiated contract with the Police Lieutenants and Sergeants, or the new City ordinance, if adopted?

I have seen ordinances, policies, and any number of written affirmative action plans, similar to the one proposed to the City Council. In each I have witnessed a serious sacrifice of good employment and personnel practices through implementation of each that was adopted.

If the goals and present deficiencies for the various classifications, identified in the newly proposed ordinance are satisfied, then, there will have to be a lot of firings to accomplish those goals. Since, the city alleges that it hasn't the money, and doesn't know if, and when it will have the money; firings are the only means of meeting the goals, and attendant to that will be many law suits.

To conclude I say that a good and practical affirmative action plan is justified, but not if it violates good personnel practices and sound judgement. Inkster's plan needs some revision, but not the degree of revision represented in the second proposal.

Now is the time for 'recall'

Tom Mooradian
Managing Editor

In recent months this area has been addicted to "recall fever". It started in Van Buren Township, spread to the Van Buren Community and Wayne-Westland Community schools. The infuriated electorate didn't stop and it caught fire in Inkster, too. No community, in fact, is immune.

All of those special elections were at the expense of the overburdened taxpayers. Your money and mine, if you're fortunate enough to have one of the few jobs around to pay taxes. (Some 700,000 in this state envy you, if you do).

And now let me unequivocally announce: "This is the time to consider recall".

The date is Tues., November 2.

If you are disenchanted with those in power, with those who do not carry out the mandate you believe in, then don't hesitate on November 2 to pull the lever, punch the computer — erase that man or woman out of office.

Unmistakably, you have the power. Use it. Stand by the grave of the ousted elected official and say, "See, I told you so. I am the voter, I am the boss. You were my servant and refused to obey. Now Rest in Peace."

But, realistically, you and I both know you won't do it. Semantics never brought you to the polls before and, in fact, if you make up the 60 to 70 percent — sometimes as high as 90 percent — of the electorate, you won't go to the polls now.

You like sitting on the sidelines to criticize and complain and say "My vote really doesn't matter". Of course it doesn't — you didn't respect it that much to cast it.

You, the voter, will fabricate every excuse in the world so that you don't take those few steps toward voicing your right.

It's unfortunate, isn't it?

But dictatorships would thrive on and extend their power of influence because of people like you. Did you happen to read those few graphs about those American-born U.S. citizens who moved to the Soviet Union immediately after the Bolshevik Revolution — that was around 1921 — and now want to come home to "live the rest of their lives". And the Russians won't let them, won't issue exit permits?

Those expatriates would gladly exchange places with you. Believe me, they would cast a vote if they had the right.

And please don't let a contemptuous columnist stir any of your emotions.

After all, scolding readers is easy when you have command of the keys on a VDT or a typewriter.

So, to those who will take time to vote, and vote intelligently on Nov. 2, let it be noted that you are, indeed, a rare person. In this country there are too few of you.

But then, thank God, you have the privilege to cast a vote for the person you find is best qualified.

And, again, Nov. 2 is the best time to recall those "candidates" who don't do their jobs.

Why is it that those who complain the loudest usually have nothing to say?

Nuclear war is suicidal for all of mankind

I disagree with Mr. Harry Noyes III October 13 letter in which he states that a nuclear war is winnable. How limited does the war have to be before it is "winnable?"

The Soviet Union has approximately 7,000 warheads with an estimated yield of more than 17,000 megatons of explosive power. If only 10,000 of these megatons (which is equivalent to more than 800,000 Hiroshimas) were unleashed on the United States on both military targets (ICBM sites, SAC and Air Force bases, army bases, naval ports, etc.) and population centers above 1500 inhabitants we would probably experience the following:

- The vast majority of the people in the areas targeted would be irradiated, crushed, or burned to death.

- The thermal pulses of the bomb would subject 600,000 square miles or 1/6 of the total land mass of the U.S. to a minimum level of 40 calories per centimetre squared (a level of heat that chars human beings).

- Much of the area surrounding the targets would be subject to incendiary levels of heat and in some cases, firestorms would develop.

- Blast waves would follow the thermal pulses and hence many of the physical structures would simply collapse or be blown away.

- Those that survive the primary effects of the bomb in targeted areas could shortly die of lethal doses of radiation.

- If the 76 nuclear power plants in the U.S. are destroyed certain longer-lived isotopes in these power plants could contaminate surrounding areas for decades. (One year after a one-megaton bomb struck a nuclear power plant in an area of 1700 square miles downwind from an average 15 m.p.h. wind there still would be 50 rems delivered to anyone who tried to live there. Fifty rems is 250 times above the "safe" dosage listed by the EPA.)

- Many of the mammals and birds in targeted areas would die off. Since radiation exposure is painless these creatures would not know they are being lethally exposed.

- In areas surrounding the targets, deciduous trees may die.
- Injured survivors would find few doctors and medical facilities to assist them.
- Millions of strewn corpses could cause epidemics. Insect populations would increase dramatically and many insects are carriers of diseases.

- Many will starve because uncontaminated food is unavailable.
- If the few individuals in fallout shelters came out three months after the attack in an area in which the fallout would in the long run deliver a dose of 10,000 rems they would still receive 300 rems over their lifetimes, with 200 of the rems coming within the first year of exposure. (Some physicians believe that 300 rems exposure is enough to ensure that most people will contract some form of cancer in their lifetime.)

- A dose of only 150 rems doubles the chance for spontaneous mutation in future offspring. Hence a dramatic increase in congenital defects will occur.

In conclusion, I fear that any nuclear exchange between the United States and the Soviet Union will be suicidal to both countries (not to speak of the global effects to the remainder of mankind) and I doubt either country could claim victory.

Taxpayers at marrow, too

EDITOR — May I respond to your editorial, "Our Opinions" appearing in the October 6th issue as pertains to the Van Buren schools.

You wrote that the Van Buren Board of Education says that they have cut expenses to the marrow — and you believe them. Well! We don't, and obviously from the vote of October second the majority of our citizens do not believe it either.

An article from the Detroit Free Press showed the allocation of school funds for the ten largest districts in Wayne County. Van Buren spends 32.6% of their school budget for Business and Administration expenses and only 57.2% on instruction. Their B&A expenses are the highest of all ten school districts. Does that sound like they have cut to the marrow?

You state that today's students are deprived of many programs that most of the over "30" generation enjoyed in school. My generation did not have wall to wall carpeting, indoor swimming pools, computers, visual aids, a "language lab" with ear phones, etc. We also had only one principal for the entire high school and one assistant principal who also taught classes.

You mention the voters haven't passed a millage increase since 1978. Why should we? The School Tax portion of our tax bill went from $1848.01 to $2862.52 between 1978 and 1981 — that is a 57% increase. What do they want? We've been cut to the marrow too!

You say we need people with business acuity to run our schools — that 32.6% of our school budget used for business and administration should buy plenty of business know-how! Why doesn't it? What are we getting for almost one third of our school tax money?

You call it a "Catch 22" situation. Phooey! Clean out the deadwood and pare down the overhead. All the taxpayers are "fine-tuning" their budgets and it's time this township's Board of Education did the same.

The money spent by the Board on repeated, futile, increased millage requests might better have been used to hire a business consultant if that is what's needed to run the schools efficiently and within budget.

Urges 'Yes' vote
on Proposal A

EDITOR — I earnestly hope your newspaper will urge readers to vote "yes" on Proposal A in the November general election.

Voter approval of Proposal A would permit the Michigan Legislature to reform the constitutionally-provided privilege of legislative immunity and restrict its application to ensure state legislators must obey the same laws everyone else does.

It is very important Michigan voters understand that approval of Proposal A would lead to reform and increased legislative accountability. This proposal is similar to one that was defeated in the 1980 election. Studies indicate that proposal failed because many voters mistakenly thought it would give legislators more, not less, immunity from civil prosecution. This is not correct! It is essential voters know a revision of the legislative immunity privilege would be another important step in achieving legislative accountability.

Legislative immunity, as provided in the State Constitution, was originally intended to protect lawmakers from frivolous lawsuits and harassment arising from their actions as legislators. Two major changes have occurred since the 1963 State Constitution was adopted, however, that substantiate the need to reform the application of legislative immunity. First, the legislature is no longer a part-time body. It now meets practically all year and, as a result, legislators are virtually immune all year from civil offenses and prosecution. Secondly, the decriminalization of many minor infractions indirectly extended legislative immunity to include even traffic violations such as speeding and illegal turns.

We need to close the loopholes that now permit the potential abuse of the legislative immunity privilege.

We need to vote "yes" on Proposal A.

She's disappointed
in Wayne's Band

EDITOR — I am writing this letter to say how disappointed I was in the Wayne Memorial High School Band in the fall festival parade. John Glenn's band was in full uniform and looked very impressive, and Wayne Memorial's band wore shorts and, in my opinion, looked very sloppy.

I've always been very proud of the fact that I graduated from Wayne High and so are other members of my family. My grandmother, father, mother and sister also graduated from Wayne and I have a younger brother and sister that will also graduate from there.

I truly believe that Wayne could have done a much better job, at least they could have worn their uniforms. I realize that it was warm but after all Glenn wore theirs and did a terrific job.

Stolen bikes
are recovered

EDITOR — I wrote a letter a couple of weeks ago concerning the theft of my sons' two bicycles. I am glad to report that we have obtained both bikes back.

Thanks to Officer Smendra & Lt. Holloway of the Van Buren Township police force. They worked on a tip as to the whereabouts of the bicycles. My youngest son saw what appeared to be his bike a few houses down the street.

The blue paint had been scraped off the bike (most of it), and a few parts changed. The I.D. number had been ground off the frame also.

The police were called and they investigated the matter.

I talked to the new "owner" of the bike and he finally confessed that he stole it.

We got the one bike back a week later in one piece. A week later Officer Smendra brought the other bike back in (pieces) but it was all there.

My two youngest sons are happy to have them back and I feel good about it.

I would just like to publicly thank Officer Smendra and Lt. Holloway for doing their job and doing it well.

As for the two juveniles who were caught with the bikes, I only hope that this incident scared them enough to change their way of thinking and their way of obtaining property.

Correcting
a statement

EDITOR — It is time that the notorious Jimmy Davis stopped his erroneous public statements.

I take personal offense to his comments and lies at the Oct. 4 City Council meeting stating that my tax bill was considerably lower than his mother's and this was because of wrong doings.

The facts are as follows: My 1982 City Tax $1,237.48, my 1982 Estimated County $2,744.26, my 1982 Total $3,981.74.

Davis' 1982 City Tax $569.72, Davis' 1982 Estimated County $1,341.06, Davis' 1982 Total $1,910.78.

My tax bill is obviously much greater and is available as public record at City Hall. Mr. Davis does not pay property taxes and according to his statement in the 1981 issue of another newspaper, has lived on public assistance since 1973. My wife and I work for a living and contribute a good percentage of our income to property and income taxes, and help support people like Jimmy Davis.

It is my suggestion that Mr. Davis quit harassing people who have tried to improve the quality of life in our city.

A libel suit would be of no significance since he appears to be totally dependent on public assistance.

It is time to cease taking the limited valuable time of responsible Council people to try and create public havoc with unfounded lies.

I applaud the Council or the patience they have exhibited in the abuse they have received from a few obnoxious and irresponsible people who appear to have regular meetings with the Mayor prior to Council sessions.

Rocket fans
misbehave

EDITOR — I have just gone to my last John Glenn football game. Why? Because the behavior of the crowd at the homecoming game was a shame.

I don't mind the tossing of confetti and shredded newspapers — that's good, harmless fun. But I do object to being a target for these idiots, who do nothing at the game but throw at the people trying to watch the game. Not only are the spectators used as targets, but so were the cheerleaders and the people in the parade during halftime.

The parents of these kids are just as ignorant as the kids themselves. We sat behind four of the wildest little kids who did nothing but throw junk all night long making it miserable for everyone else around them, while their parents sat watching the game. The last straw was the bottle rockets and firecrackers above the crowd.

This kind of behavior would not be condoned anywhere else, so why should being at a football game be a license to be rowdy?

Something needs to be done for those of us who enjoy watching the Rockets play football.

The name is Chorbagan

EDITOR — The name is CHORBAGIAN, and I'm a candidate for schoolboard trustee. Up until now the name has been omitted, misspelled, or changed. But make no mistake about it the name is KATHLEEN CHORBAGIAN.

As a 32 year resident of the Wayne-Westland community and a 1964 graduate of it's school system, I take a great pride in living here. Working hard in hand as a volunteer with so many wonderful people has been an extreme pleasure.

Now I see the need to bring the community back together in a positive awareness. Let the past remain the past, but not ignoring the lessons it has taught us. Let's work together for a brighter tomorrow. It has been said "today is the first day of the rest of our lives." Let's make each day a positive step in working as a community united behind education, government and social responsibility toward our fellow man.

Most people run for office, well I'm walking. Individuals who are always running don't have time to stop and listen to the people along the way. When you see me I'll have time, that's what representation is all about. Listening and voicing the peoples feeling and opinions.

If we pull together and try to understand each other, then compromise is down the road. Each day of life is a compromise and I'm ready for the challenge.

A 'bite' leaves a mark

San Francisco...I am going home!

Once again my sister and I met the enemy somewhere deep inside her, she turned on a special mechanism and routed him. The doctor hugged her and then he turned and hugged me, and a few days later I kissed her goodbye and flew down here to be with my youngest son and his wife for a few days.

As I write this I am sitting on the beach. The warm Santa Ana winds have created a heavenly day, just special for me...a special going away present.

My daughter-in-law and my niece, together with the children of my niece are playing in the sand, challenging the roaring, surging waves which come full force upon them, only to dwindle to wetness on the sand as they touch their feet.

I am thinking of home. I look out into the infinity of the ocean, and then back to the mountains trying to meet the sea, and somehow I can't feel home. I seem to have lost my identity. I am somewhere between here and there, and I think that standing at the door of the unknown for so many months, encouraging and loving a dearly loved sister, has somehow made me lose me.

I am almost afraid to leave the tangibility of my youngest son, board the plane and fly into the clouds. I am overwhelmed with the sense that I will never see home again. Never see the face of my beloved husband, he of the dancing, twinkling eyes and the funny, teasing manner. Never to feel the warmth of my baby grandchildren, and hear the laugh and chatter of the older ones. I had not realized how much I missed them until this moment, sitting on the sand in the warm California sunshine and listening to the eternalness of the roaring ocean.

The past two years have seen me standing at the door of the unknown, holding the hands of those I love while they face the inevitability of life's ending. And I have come to the absolute knowledge that there is no one, no doctor, no one on earth who can say to a human spirit that it is time for it to go over that threshold into the unknown.

Joyce Hagelthorne

Something beyond our knowledge holds that key, and until it is turned completely, no one can say it is the end.

My sister is packing her trunk for a long visit with her son. A very few weeks ago the doctor was shaking his head and telling us it was time to say goodbye. But he forgot to consult her.

There is so much mystery to living — and to dying.

And tomorrow I am going home!

Mona Grigg

ple mistake, to push the button that would start it all. I saw and heard it here in the U.S. and the Russians saw and heard it over there. Not a word of it was censored.

Ann Garrels, an ABC newscaster just back from four years in Russia, said in remarks made after the broadcast, that the Russian people are as terrified of nuclear war as we are. They are no more ignorant, nor any less fearful, than we are.

They — as we — are people who want to live their lives in peace. And who want to do it — as we do — without being cursed by militaristic propagandists shoving words like "limited nuclear wars" and "superior survivability" and "kill distances" down our throats.

And when my blood curdles on reading about "trivial damage (sunburn on bare skin) at 40-45 miles," or on reading that "a 20-megaton bomb is not 1,000 times as destructive as a 20-kilotonner, actually it will destroy only 100 times the area and its destructive radius is only 10 times as great," I suppose one could consider that a highly emotional reaction.

My good sweet Lord, I hope so.

Another viewpoint of 'freeze'

Last week there was a lengthy letter in the space opposite me on the preceding page. It was written by a retired military man still active in the reserves, as I understand it.

The intent of his letter was to convince us that nuclear freeze supporters are incredibly naive, highly emotional and woefully inexperienced in nuclear warfare. They are also, in the words of the letter-writer, "either ignorant or dishonest."

There are certain signs to watch for, he said, when looking for the "phony expert." Among them are: discussion of only the obvious, the irrelevant, the unimportant (hard to watch for when he doesn't explain what exactly they are), reliance on emotional appeals, and also watch for some arguments to support the freeze. (Huh?)

Check credentials, he says. Very few nuclear physicists, political scientists or medical doctors are nuclear war experts.

"Unless specializing in military issues, most wouldn't recognize a H-bomb if it appeared in their bathtubs." (I've looked and looked — and, sorry — can't find the relevance in that statement.)

I think that very few physicists, political scientists or medical doctors have ever claimed to be "experts on nuclear warfare." They are, however, claiming to know something about the effects of nuclear war.

When Drs. Helen Caldicott and Bernard Lown and the 160,000

medicos who make up the Physicians for Social Responsibility tell me that, during the aftermath of a nuclear war, the living would envy the dead, I have a hard time crossing them off as hysterical non-experts.

When Leonid Brezhnev's personal physician, Dr. Yevgeny Chazov, (also a member of PSR) tells us — along with 100 million Russian citizens — that "nuclear war will mean the end of all mankind," I have to believe that courage and concern — not ignorance or dishonesty — prompts such a statement.

When 200,000 people march for peace at the U.N. building, when at least seven states and scores of cities see fit to include a freeze proposal on their ballots, and when 375,000 people in Michigan sign petitions supporting the freeze, I have to conclude that at least a few of them know what they are doing.

And when our own president addresses a veteran's group by saying the freeze movement was inspired "not by sincere, honest people who want peace, but by some who want the weakening of American and so are manipulating many honest and sincere people," I have to examine my own seemingly honest and sincere soul and wonder who is manipulating whom.

An event unique to Russian television took place this past summer, causing me to cast further doubt on the military advisors claiming to be expert in probing the Russian mind. A Soviet-produced program called "Nuclear War: Incurable Disease," was broadcast twice within three days over the Soviet's one-and-only channel, reaching upwards of 100 million people. The program consisted entirely of six medical doctors — three Americans, three Russians (including Drs. Lown and Chazov) — sitting around a table discussing, in very human terms, the medical effects of a nuclear war. The telecast was re-broadcast last week on PBS.

Yes, it was propaganda of sorts — and yes, it was scary. But the over-riding issue was concern for the world's humanity. Not just Russia's and not just America's — but entire world humanity.

The fact that dialogue concerning nuclear war could take place between Americans and Russians on Russian soil and then be broadcast to 100 million Russians, casts doubt on the statement made by the above-mentioned letter-writer that "when a Russian general published a book with one sentence hinting that nuclear war might be unwinnable, that line was censored out of all later editions."

The good doctors on the program the other night discussed at length how unwinnable a nuclear war would be. They discussed the folly of a civil-defense system. They also discussed how easy it would be for the people in charge, either out of panic, or from incredible stress, or by sim-

Cotton is no rhinestone cowgirl

JOSIE COTTON
"Convertible Music"
(Elektra)

So you think the Go-Go's are really hot stuff, eh? I mean, "Vacation all I ever wanted..." Gimme a break, will ya? Granted, the Go-Go's seemingly had a lot of potential, but the material on "Vacation" is so thin I thought the album should've been pressed on clear vinyl.

Anyway, along comes Josie Cotton, a girl from Dallas, Texas, which is not, by any means, a hotbed of rock'n'roll. But, no rhinestone cowgirl this; Cotton may be the best female rock'n'popper since the immortal Ronnie Spector — honest.

She's gained a lot of underground support for the independent 12-inch of "Johnny Are You Queer," which is also included here. With instrumentation very reminiscent of the Cars' first LP (only louder), "Johnny" is a gem of a tune, with Josie wailing away "I'm so afraid I'll lose you/ If I can't seduce you/Johnny are you queer?" It's good, light-hearted fun with a twist.

As a matter of fact, one night while switching around the cable for a good comedy show, I of course checked out two of the funniest around — The PTL Club and the 700 Club. I don't remember which one it was, but there was this guy on there telling of the "low-down-and-dirty-evils" of rock'n'roll.

He'd play something backwards that no human being with an undistorted mind would mistake for anything other than, of course, a record played backwards. Then he'd say "There! You heard it! It says, as clear as can be, 'Oh my sweet satan come over and have lunch,' or something like that.

Then he held up the Bomp 12-inch record of Josie Cotton. As anyone knows, 12-inch singles are all played at 45 rpm. But not, of course, this guy. "Our producers," he said, "like anyone of you would, put this record on at 33 rpm's. BUT, they recorded it at 45, so as to confuse you. AND, he pointed out vigorously, "when this, this record is played at 33, it becomes obvious that this person who calls herself, or himself, Josie Cotton, is actually a MAN singing!"

Gee whiz, imagine that. If you play a woman's 45 at 33, it slows it down so it sounds like a man. And if you play a man's 45 at 33, it sounds like he's one placidly over the line. And if you play a man's 33 1/3 rpm album at 45, it suddenly sounds like a commercial for dextroamphetamine, either that or tight underwear. Amazing stuff. Simply amazing...

But, back to the record at hand. Simply put, "Convertible Music" is one great album; not a classic perhaps, but one that should be played at least twice at every party.

The ultra-danceable "He could Be The One" is already a certified Top-20 hit single, although I must admit I was quite surprised to see Josie and her band lip-synching along on "Solid Gold." When did they get good taste anyway?

The next single should be "Systematic Way," which is at least as catchy as "He could Be The One." And then, when she's gained the recognition she deserves, maybe some gutsy radio programmers (AM of course, FM has already picked up on it) will play "Johnny Are You Queer?" because it's got the potential to be a mega-hit.

After all, it's not pro-gay, and it's not anti-gay. It's just a pretty funny twist on the dated "love gone bad" theme that's been driven into the ground for thirty years. Sort of like an 80's "Fun, fun, fun, 'till her daddy takes the T-Bird away."

For a debut, "Convertible Music" is more than one has any right to expect from a new artist. Eleven songs, some great, none any worse than good. And, besides, she's cute...

ALSO RANS

TRANSLATOR

"Heartbeats And Bullets"
(Columbia/415)

A hard-edged foursome from the west coast, Translator have made a formidable first album. Lots of good cuts here ("Favorite Drug," "My Heart, Your Heart") but the Beatle-ish "Everywhere That I'm Not" is so good that the rest pales by comparison. They also make the best use of acoustic guitars in the rock idiom since Bowie's "Ziggy Stardust" album. I'd give it a B.

Steve Forbert
(Nemperor)

Steve Forbert's debut album, "Arrive On Arrival," made folk-rock "cool" again. Fresh from opening up for bands like Patti Smith and Television at New York's infamous CBGB's, Forbert seemed to have it made. Critics loved him. Few else had heard of him.

Then his not-quite-as-good second album appeared, and the obvious pressure from company bigshots to commercialize paid off in a hit single, "Romeo's Tune." The third LP was even slicker, and I figured he was washed up — too bad.

But, imagine my surprise when listening to his — in the record company's words — "critical" fourth album. It's good, very good in fact, and every bit the throwback to the sound of his debut you could hope for. Even his humor, which pretty much disappeared on last year's "Little Stevie Orbit" is back in full swing.

"He's Got To Live Up To His Shoes" seems like the natural single, but for some unknown reason, Epic/Nemperor records hasn't released a single at all from the record, and there's plenty to choose from, that's for sure.

Whoever Steve Forbert insulted, they've done a good job of burying his career knee deep in you-know-what. But hopefully he's not through yet, at least not if the quality of this self-titled effort is any indication.

Grix, Bokon are wed; honeymoon in Poconos

A honeymoon in the Pocono Mountains followed the late summer ceremony which united Katherine Jo Bokon and Thomas Grix in holy matrimony.

The daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Bokon of 51230 Willis Rd., Belleville, the bride was escorted to the sanctuary of St. Anthony's Catholic Church by her father. The Rev. Raymond Skoney presided at the double ring rite at four o'clock on the afternoon of September 11.

Music for the occasion was sung by Mary Ann Emerson, cousin of the bride, and her brother, John Bokon, who played guitar accompaniment.

Kathy wore the gown which her sister, Janice Ross, had worn on her wedding day in 1964. The antique satin creation featured an appliqued and pearl-trimmed boat neckline, long button-down sleeves and a full skirt which drifted into a chapel train.

Her fingertip veil of silk illusion was caught to a crown of hand-clipped appliqued flowers and completing her ensemble was a colonial bouquet of silk yellow and white roses and baby's breath surrounding a tiger lily. All the floral arrangements for the wedding were the work of Mrs. Ross.

Two honor attendants chosen by the bride were Linda J. Morland of Plymouth and Susan Baisch Mason of Dallas, Tex., formerly of Belleville.

Bridesmaids included Gail Smith of Westland; Tari Askew and Dawn Bower of Farmington; Julie Ross and Kimberly Lewis, both nieces of the bride from Belleville, and Marie Grix Mc Elroy of Livonia, sister of the bridegroom.

Identically gowned, the group appeared in forest green qiana frocks with crocheted blouson bodices and toe-touching skirts. They tucked silk tiger lilies in their hair and carried palmetto fans with tiger lily arrangements atop.

The little flower girl, Becky Christie of Redford, donned a little white dress similar to the bride's gown.

The bridegroom, the son of Mrs. Anthony Grix of 30330 Minton, Livonia, asked his brother, William Grix of Denver, Col., to serve as best man. The corps of ushers was comprised of Ken Grix and Dave Grix of Redford, brothers of the bridegroom; Joe Ross and Bob Lewis of Belleville, nephews of the bride; John Bokon of Belleville, brother of the bride; John Amo of Redford, and Edward O'Rourke of Livonia, cousin of the bridegroom.

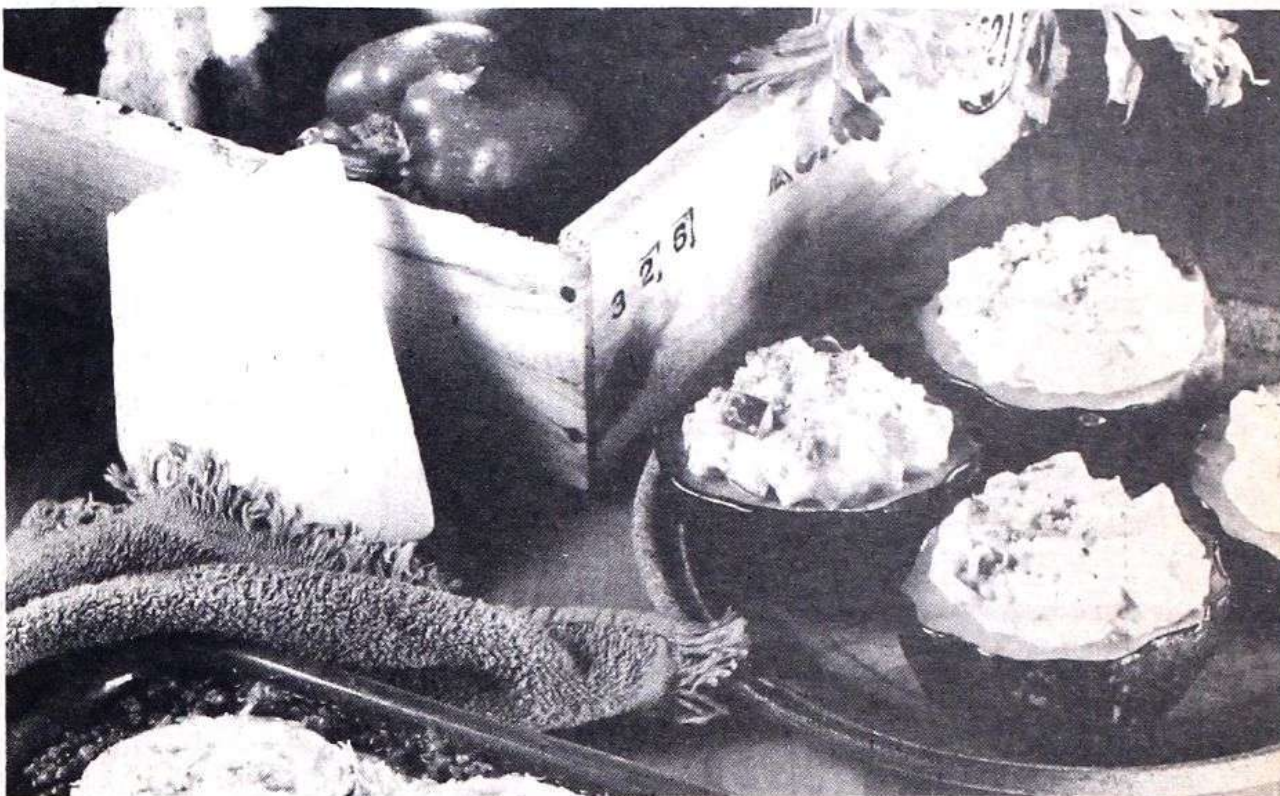

At the dinner-dance reception which followed at Teamsters Local 157 in Romulus, some 500 guests were greeted by the bride's mother who chose for the occasion an orchid chiffon formal gown with a full-length companion jacket. For her son's wedding Mrs. Grix wore a pale green chiffon gown with long sleeves. Both were honored with silk tiger lily corsages.

A member of the Ginopolis sorority, the new Mrs. Grix is employed at Gest Omelettes in Redford. Her husband is self-employed as an interior designer specializing in restaurant and bars.

The rehearsal dinner, hosted by Mrs. Anthony Grix, was held at the Beefcarver in Westland.

Winter vegetables provide main dishes

Winter vegetables are hearty, quite unlike the fragile garden produce of spring and summer. That's why they can combine with a small amount of other ingredients and still supply satisfying main dishes.

1 cup chopped unpeeled cooking apples
1 tablespoon butter
½ cup seasoned dry bread crumbs

Preheat oven to 350° F. Cut squash in half; remove seeds. Bake, cut side down, in a shallow pan 35 to 45 minutes, or until squash can easily be pierced with a fork. Meanwhile, melt ¼ cup butter in a 2-quart saucepan. Sauté ham, celery and green pepper until tender, about 5 minutes. Stir in flour and seasonings until smooth. Remove from heat. Gradually stir in milk. Bring to boiling, stirring constantly. Boil and stir 1 minute. Stir in apples. Melt 1 tablespoon butter in a small skillet; stir in bread crumbs. Remove squash from oven. Spoon creamed mixture into cavities of squash. Sprinkle bread crumb mixture over top. Return to oven for about 10 minutes, or until filling is hot and bubbly. Serve immediately.

HAM 'N' APPLES IN SQUASH

4 servings

2 medium-sized acorn squash
¼ cup (½ stick) butter
1½ cups diced cooked ham
½ cup chopped celery
¼ cup chopped green pepper
3 tablespoons flour
½ teaspoon salt
½ teaspoon nutmeg
Dash pepper
1½ cups milk

Blood needed — now!

Monday, October 25, is an important date for all us! It signals the Belleville Community Annual Blood Drive which will be held at the Belleville High School Auditorium, from 2 to 7:45 p.m.

The goal of the sponsors is to collect at least 150 pints of blood. This goal can be met if every donor takes just an hour of time to donate.

Past donors will be phoned for appointments and new donors are always needed and most welcome. The Belleville Business and Professional Women's Club is handling the details for this drive.

Volunteers may phone 697-5761 for an appointment or may walk-in to give a donation.

Remember, the Red Cross doesn't need Blood — people do!

Bonnie Pavlat is chosen BPW 'Woman of the Year'

At the regular meeting of the Belleville Business and Professional Women's Club on Oct. 4, Bonnie Pavlat was named "1982 Woman of the Year."

She has been very supportive of the Belleville Club and has worked several committees (chairing many), has held offices, been a delegate at National and State conventions, and recently was elected secretary of District 13.

She was born in Kingsford, Mich. and attended Bowling Green State University where she received her degree in elementary education. She has worked for the past 10 years as a teacher at Quirk Elementary School, Van Buren public Schools, and is active in the education program at Faith United Methodist Church, Denton.

As a special surprise for Bonnie, the Club invited her sister, Bev Lun-dell of Denton, and her four nieces, Sally Otto and Susan Ballard of Ypsilanti, Kathy Bohms of Belleville, and Debbie Hayes of Denton, to participate in the event.

The Club presented to Bonnie a "Woman of the Year" pin, certificate, and the club flower. The Quirk Elementary School staff gave her a pink rose corsage and a poster honoring her.

potpourri

By Lee Smith

Car trouble like toothaches, hangnails and bunions are just a part of life. Nobody likes any of them but they do keep cropping up and often at the most inopportune time. No one cares for those auto mishaps and when they happen on vacation, they're doubly burdensome and aggravating.

But — and there's always a but — in our recent experience, luck outweighed misfortune by a whole heap and most of that heap was labeled "southern hospitality."

The "pros" in our case included the fact we were not on an interstate with its miles of nothingness; it was not raining; there was a Buick dealership only seven miles away and we had no strict deadline to meet.

The unbudgeted sixty-five bucks the repairs cost were minor when compared to what the original guesswork-diagnosis could have tallied. Bracing ourselves for major motoritis, we were prepared for a delay of a couple days as well as a nice, fat mending fee.

All this leads up to the final part of our recent 17-day motor trip South which was routed back up through Arkansas.

Other than a very brief but pleasant bit of mileage through that state (we'd hit the Ozark Mountains enroute from our years-ago honeymoon in Denver) we'd never really given the Razorback State much thought — as a vacation spot or otherwise. Arkansas never even came near the top 10 of our "have-to-visit" places.

But as of the past October 12th and 13th, it now rates right up with the best of 'em. Not only did we enjoy excellent accommodations, food service and golf at Fairfield Bay north of Little Rock but we spent an unexpected but cordial three hours in a previously unheard-of city, Walnut Ridge.

We-I-I, perhaps we should give part of that time to nearby Pochontas since our little "delay" started between the two points, delay being spelled C-a-r T-r-o-u-b-l-e —, a "first" for us (with the exception of a few flats) during our 31 years of traveling togetherness.

Hearing a sudden "funny sound" (which was first attributed to a poor grade of gasoline) and then having the engine light flash red, we couldn't chance any long distance so we pulled into a tractor and farm equipment complex, The Case Place, flipped open the hood for a re-check, and asked if there was a mechanic available.

Even before the query, tho, several bystanders showed their concern for our plight, took a quick listen to the "chunk-chunk" and voiced their opinions which agreed with the "man" — the main mechanic (and I'm sure sorry I didn't get his name) — when he said it sounded like big trouble: an oil pump malfunction which could've already damaged the engine.

One of the group who was about to leave turned out to be a co-owner of the big-equipment complex — Billy James — who not only offered us the services of his main man but took time to learn where we hailed from and to fill us in on his experiences in Michigan. On leaving, he handed me his card and said, "Y'all just call me if you have problems. I've an extra car you can use, too."

When I audibly gasped at his generosity, he said, "Down here y'all knock on our door and we say, 'Y'all come on in and what can we do for ya?' Up there (North) you knock on a door and they say 'What the hell do ya want!'"

In the meantime, his secretary-clerk, Diane Taylor, was busy making several calls — to track down a wrecker, check costs and to alert the dealer in Walnut Ridge that we'd be needing help. Without Buick parts, the Case mechanic was stymied so we ended up sharing the cab of a wrecker as it towed our "wheels" back the seven miles we'd already covered, the Case folks all wishing us luck.

Paul Ryder, the genuinely concerned master mechanic at the garage added his agreement that it "didn't look (or sound) too good" and that he and his men would get at it right after their lunch break which was 15 minutes away, meaning 75 for us to kill before they would even begin.

We were told it might be a l-o-n-g siege and were directed to the nearest restaurant. After knocking off a couple banana splits we hoofed it into town via a busy highway.

After quickly covering the 3-block main drag we decided to visit the post office; after all the head honcho there just might've been at the Postmaster's convention, too, (the Biloxi confab having been our target nearly two weeks earlier.)

What looked to be the local stamp emporium turned out to be, ironically enough, the weekly newspaper which'd bought the old postal building when it bowed to progress. After exchanging shop talk with the "window clerk" and eventually finding the modern new P.O., we realized it was lunchtime there, too.

The next best place to kill time interestingly (and to sit a spell), we figured, was the library where we read a little of the area's history before we called on the city's postmaster of some 30-plus years, Jerry Bassett.

A cordial welcome and leisurely exchange of postal operations were followed by a tour of the office; Postmaster Bassett obviously mighty proud of his updated facility and particularly the roomy parking lot — a refreshing switch from too few, tight on-the-street spaces at the old location. He later chauffeured us back to the garage, where Mr. Ryder, a personal friend, was waiting with our already-repaired auto and the remark, "You two must carry a special rabbit's foot. There's no damage to the engine."

There were no trouble-preventing amulets on our person but Lady Luck did seem to be somewhere on the sidelines giving us a mighty nice break. Not only had she kept the problem minor (gas pump had a sheared pin) but she'd delivered us into the hands of some of Arkansas's finest — congenial, concerned people who genuinely cared about their fellow-man, even if he was a Yankee.

MORE 'BOUT THAT STATE

WE LEARNED not only that folks from the "Land of Opportunity" are a right hospitable bunch of human beings but that their state and ours are called "Sister States" since they entered the union just six months apart, in 1836 and 1837. We even have the same state flower — the apple blossom.

One of the largest cotton farms in the world some 30,000 acres, can be found in Arkansas in the area around Wison (and surprisingly, that's in the northern section of the state.)

It was in Little Rock that we discovered the meaning of the song, "Pop Goes the Weasel". The weasel in this instance was a counter for skeins of yarn — a 6-sided "wheel" with a button in the center of the spokes which ejected or "popped" as the revolutions reached 40, the size of a skein. The operator of the wheel was called the monkey. (And all the time you thought it referred to an animal! — Me, too!)

With water being among the state's commercial assets, one of the world's largest bottlers of mountain spring water can be found in Hot Springs.

And how many of you know that there are more than a half-million acres in lakes and over 9,000 miles of good streams which offer lots a fishing sites for sportsmen? Many of the lakes were created by the harnessing of rivers for the purpose of waterpower and flood control.

Lastly, you might be as surprised as we to learn that rice is one of Arkansas' major crops. The aforementioned Mr. James has "Uncle Ben's" as one of his buyers.

SO MUCH MORE

• WE LEARNED a number of other things on our journey which covered over 3,000 miles not including the sternwheel cruise out of New Orleans on the "Natchez." On board our captain informed us that the city is the second largest port in the U.S. closely following New York City.

• WE DISCOVERED that the World's Fair in Knoxville had been sorely underrated; that the entertainment was excellent and free; that fall was the time to visit; that you meet some of the nicest people in the world there; and that we're sure gonna miss the "Hopka Hilton. Also that the French Quarter in New Orleans is much, much larger than we'd expected; that it's an exciting spot to visit; that Bourbon Street is as naughty as we'd heard; that the St. Charles Avenue Streetcar is an ideal way to see the beautiful old homes in the Garden District.

• WE REDISCOVERED how long it takes to recoup from a vacation and that you're soon ready for another in a hurry — one to rest up from the holiday you just took.

THE BOTTOM LINE: Success occurs when you do something for the fun of it!

Relatives, friends honor 85th birthday

By
Mrs. Joseph Spring
699-4021

On Saturday, Oct. 9, Mrs. Frank Prais of Liberty street entertained at an open house honoring her mother, Mrs. Lucile Torr, on her 85th birthday. Relatives and friends were present from Muskegon, Addison, Cement City and the Belleville area. Mrs. Torr makes her home with another daughter, Norma Torr, on Edison Street.

Dinner guests recently at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Robson were the former's sister, Marguerite Heywood of Farmington Hills, Mr. and Mrs. Keith Knutson and Gerald Dugan of Allen Park, and the Robson's daughter, Mrs. Don Zimmer of Charlotte.

Guests last week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Calvin Light were their son, Aljohn, his wife, Lynne, and children, Charles, Douglas and Wendy, from Sarasota, Fla. Before leaving for home, they enjoyed a family get-together with members coming from Pontiac, Romulus, Ypsilanti and the Belleville area.

A group of ladies, Ruth Carter, Ethel Harris, Floretta Robson and Stella Bower, returned recently from a week's color tour in Northern Michigan. They enjoyed visiting with the former's granddaughter, Diane Stachnik at Traverse City and the Warren Carters and Herman Ruppels at Lake City.

Mr. and Mrs. Russell Seaman spent the past week at their summer cottage on the Black River near Cheboygan. While there they called on former Belleville residents, the John Paynes at Mullet Lake. Enroute home they stopped in Gaylord to see their son, David Seaman.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Alm of Stevens Point, Wis. were recent callers at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Russell Buck.

They were enroute to visit the Buck family in Baltimore, Md.

Mrs. Louis (Lucille) Bravatto of Bedell Street sustained a shattered right elbow and wrist Oct. 11 in a fall from a ladder while washing windows.

Mr. and Mrs. LaMarr Gress were among the dinner guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Mark Paladino on Sunday, Oct. 10, honoring the latter's son, Joseph, on his first birthday.

Other grandparents present were Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Paladino and great-grand parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Alexander of Garden City; also the baby's aunt, Natalie Gress, who was home from CMU at Mount Pleasant.

Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Orr were recent dinner guests of their daughter, Lynn Orr in Oberlin, Ohio, in celebration of Mrs. Orr's birthday.

A group of long-time friends of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Stevens: Mr. and Mrs. Corwin Overton of Oxford; Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Cross of Detroit, and Mr. and Mrs. Walter Austin of Canton, enjoyed dinner together at the Willow Church last Wednesday and then spent the evening socially at the Stevens home.

Former Belleville teachers, Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Yost of Deaufort, S.C., were week-end guests of Mrs. Muriel Smith.

Twenty-two members of the South Western Wayne County Book Club met at the Brass Belle for dinner and the regular meeting Oct. 9. Guest speaker was Monica Hopp of Ypsilanti whose topic was "Quilts." Mrs. Hopp, an authority on quilting, gave an interesting history of the art since colonial days. She displayed several old quilts along with others brought by members of the club. A goodly number of Farm Bureau members in this vicinity attended the annual dinner and meeting of Wayne County Farm Bureau at the Wayne Community Center Oct. 12. The guest speaker gave an interesting history of Farm Bureau since the time of the Grange meetings.

In BPW Club

Cora R. Horton honored on 53rd year of membership

In 1929, Cora Rose became a member of the Ypsilanti Business Women's Club. Eventually, that club became a part of the Michigan Federation of Business and Professional Women's Clubs. Her 53 years as a member include 27 in the Ypsilanti Club and 26 in Belleville.

She held office and served on various committees during all those years. During her time as president in Ypsilanti, 1946-47, she was instrumental in sponsoring the Belleville Club which received its charter in September, 1947. She was president of Belleville BPW in 1967-68 and was chosen Woman of the Year in 1965.

At the recent BPW meeting, she was honored for her half century-plus of BPW membership and presented with a certificate and red rose. At the Michigan Federation State Convention in June, 1982 held in Battle Creek where Cora now lives, she was presented with a gold necklace signifying her 53 year membership in BPW and bearing her name Cora Rose Horton.

Cora moved to Belleville after her marriage to Frank Horton, started to work for the People State Bank of Belleville in 1945 and continued to work there when it merged with National Bank of Detroit, retiring in the late 1960's. Since then she has become a world traveler—visiting the Holy Land more than once, touring Alaska, taking a world cruise and enjoying numerous other tours. She also spent a "leisurely" trip during September, 1982 through Central Europe.

For the Oct. 4 meeting of Belleville BPW, Cora came from Battle Creek and brought with her Mrs. Gloria Herbert of Delton, Mich. who showed slides and narrated the activities of a trip made in 1980 to Sierra Leone in Africa.

The trip was sponsored by Missionary World Service and Evangelism of Wilmore, Ky. The slides showed the construction of a library at the Bible College in Sierra Leone from start to finish.

Both Cora and Gloria donned their tie dye dresses for the occasion thus showing some of the beautiful work done by the people who make their home and living in the African country. The Herbert's daughter and her family are missionaries making the account of this work project doubly interesting.

Fleming-Cole repeat vows at September 3 wedding

Faith United Methodist Church in Denton was the setting September 3 for the evening ceremony at which Nancy Lynn Cole and Daniel Ray Fleming became husband and wife.

The Rev. Susan Defoe presided at the double ring rite before some 160 guests including the young couple's parents, John Cole of 239 Anaheim, Belleville and Dorothy Cole of 14545 Elwell Rd., Belleville, and Mr. and Mrs. Ray Fleming of 42651 E. Huron River Dr., Belleville.

Music for the candlelight wedding was played by Rosalie Southward and sung by Jerry Sager, both of Belleville.

Escorted to the altar by her father, the bride appeared in a gown of nylon lace over satin crepe designed with a choker collar above a lace-frosted illusion neckline. Full sheer sleeves and a flounced sweeping train were other styling details on the lace-appliqued dress.

She wore a little Juliet cape which secured her fingertip veil and held an arrangement of cascading silk white roses and orchids.

Gloria Rochowiak of Belleville was maid of honor for her longtime friend and wore a lavender accordion pleated frock with a sheer Victorian-style jacket over a spaghetti strap bodice. Her bouquet was comprised of lavender roses and carnations as were those for the four bridesmaids: Debbie Rogalski of Belleville, sister of the bride; Sharon Fleming of Dearborn Heights, sister-in-law of the bridegroom; and Pat Fleming of Canton and Rayleen Haydon of Westland, both sisters of the bridegroom.

Robert Fleming of Dearborn Heights was his brother's best man. Others on the esquire side were Carl Rogalski of Belleville, brother-in-law of the bride; Donald Haydon of Allen Park; Kevin Mc Kelvey of Belleville, cousin of the bridegroom; and Kevin Foley of Detroit.

Mrs. Cole chose for her daughter's wedding a lavender print gown to which she pinned her corsage of cymbidium orchids. Similar flowers were presented to Mrs. Fleming who donned a soft beige formal gown for the occasion.

Following a reception for some 160 guests at Detroit Metro Holiday Inn, the newlyweds departed for a two week motor trip through the South.

Both young people graduated from Belleville High School, the new Mrs. Fleming in 1977 and her husband a year earlier. She is currently working as a word processor at the University of Michigan Hospital.

The bridegroom graduated from Washtenaw Community College in 1979 and is currently attending Wayne County Community College. He holds an associate degree in criminal justice and works in security personnel at General Motors Truck and Coach.

The bridegroom's parents played host at the rehearsal dinner held at Herc's in Ypsilanti with 26 people attending.

MOUTH BREATHING PROBLEMS

Occasionally, you may notice a youngster who cannot breathe through his nose and uses his mouth for all his breathing. This may not seem abnormal—but it is, and can lead to a lot of future dental problems if not stopped early.

What causes mouth breathing? This habit is usually caused by enlarged tonsils and/or adenoids. (The adenoids are tonsils hidden above the throat and behind the palate.) When infected, they can enlarge and block breathing through the nasal passage. The child will gasp for air through his mouth.

Mouth breathing can lead to a host of dental problems such as "buck teeth", weak jaw, and dried-out gums that are susceptible to irritation and pyorrhea. It also can seriously distort the child's face through the years, narrowing nostrils, weakening the chin, and slackening the lips. Also, because the air doesn't pass through the normal heating-and-humidifying nasal passages, it is dry, irritating and often causes frequent colds and infections, thus perpetuating a vicious cycle.

Pats are back

Unbeaten Franklin clinches title share with victory over Glenn

"It's great to be back."
That's what Livonia Franklin fans, gridders and Coach Armand Vigna chanted after their decisive victory over previously undefeated Westland John Glenn Saturday afternoon before their Homecoming crowd.
The victory stretched Franklin's win streak to six and clinched at least a share of the Northwest Suburban Conference football championship. It also enabled the Livonians to stay alive in the battle for one of two playoff berths in Division 4.

The loss, Glenn's first in five starts, left the Rockets looking to Garden City to do the job they didn't accomplish. If Garden City defeats Franklin and topples Redford Union, the Westlanders could share in the title.
Vigna stressed that the Patriots' defense was crucial in "beating one of the finest teams around."

"We intercepted them five times and also stopped their running game and that was crucial in this game," Vigna said.
Two of those interceptions went to Chris Lewis, while Richard Wood, Gary Staub and Herb Minard each had one. Also, Vigna said that when attempted to exploit the right side of the line, a switch was made to help injured Ted Mills who had twisted his ankle.

The Patriots made the adjustment with Bob Stebbins who helped shut off the Rockets.
But, the game was a classic.
Michigan-Ohio State, Army-Navy, Oklahoma-Nebraska, USC-UCLA.
Great rivalries, yes, but none can compare with the rivalry that exists between the Rockets of Westland

John Glenn and the Patriots of Livonia Franklin, one that dates back to 1964.
That rivalry was renewed last Saturday afternoon at Franklin's Staley Field as the two unbeaten Northwest Suburban League powers hooked up in a duel for undisputed possession of first place. Franklin prevailed, 19-7, but not before Glenn made sure that the Patriots earned the title.

Coach Chuck Gordon, whose football teams have beaten Franklin four of the five previous years he has served as head coach, said, "Franklin is a great team. They just played better than we did."
The intensity of this game showed on the faces of the fans, coaches, and players. Both teams wanted this game badly and were determined to get it. Gordon said, "We (See GLENN, Page C-2)

Breaking loose

Mired in their territory most of the evening, Romulus' Jerome Austin (25) finds a little light on this play against undefeated Woodhaven Friday night to pick up a first down. The gains were few and far between as Austin and the Eagles were shut out 14-0 by Woodhaven who cashed in on eight miscues for the victory.

Rocket harriers roar past North

Getting past an always tough North Farmington team, Westland John Glenn kept its sights on the Northwest Suburban Conference cross country championship with a 25-31 victory over the Raiders.
The victory improved Coach Ed Phillips and Glenn's league record to 3-1 on the season, while North's dipped to a 2-2 in the conference.
North Farmington's Dave Hobart won the meet in a time of 16 minutes and 29 seconds for the 5,000 meter (3.1 mile) Glenn home course.
The victory was Glenn's when four Rockets followed Hobart across the finish line.

Senior Captain Tom Gibson was second in 16:49, sophomore Jay Hunt was third at 17:22, senior Todd Stockwell was fourth at 17:38, sophomore Frank Shelly was fifth at 17:44, and rounding out the Glenn scoring was sophomore Jim Lakatos, who was 11th at 18:23.
"This was the biggest victory of the year for the team," said coach Phillips. "If we can get by Livonia Franklin next week, we will enter the league meet with only one loss (to Redford Union), and anything can happen at the league meet."
"As a team, we ran pretty well, Gibson and Hunt had only an average day against North, but Stockwell and Shelly had super races today. Not enough can be said about Jim Lakatos our new fifth man, he lowered his personal best time for your course by a full minute during this race, quite an achievement."

Spartans shut out by Sabers

It's just one of those years for Cherry Hill and head football coach Jerry Pawloski.
With their leading rusher, Johnny Green sidelined with an injury, the Spartans can't seem to generate enough offense to stop their Tri-River Conference rivals.
Green, who grounds out 160-yards per game — at least in his last six contests, has been ailing with a hip injury and has not been healthy for the past three games.
With Green out, Cherry Hill was no match for Southgate which buried the Spartans 21-0 in a conference match-up last Saturday.
"We have yet to get any consistency on offense in the last few games," lamented Pawloski. "We have four offensive starters out with injuries."
Joining Green on the sidelines are center John Bennett, and tackle Dana Palazzola, both nursing knee hurts. Also out is Lou Smith.
The Spartan's two victories this year have been on Fridays; their four losses occurred on Saturdays.

Frank Shelly is coming on strong as a varsity runner. Considered the most improved man on the course, Shelly simply doesn't know how good he can be in the future, but with his determination he will be a good one. Todd Stockwell ran well for being on a reduced training program for most of the year due to injury. He also is coming around and will be a factor in the league meet and the state regional meet in two weeks.
Glenn will host Livonia Franklin in a league dual meet today and travels to North Farmington on Tuesday, (Oct. 26) for the Northwest Suburban League championships.

Cage clinic

Some of the top basketball coaches in the United States will be guest speakers at a clinic designed for junior, high school and college coaches.
The clinic, organized by Hamtramck's Mark Decker, is scheduled for Saturday, Oct. 30 at the Hamtramck Community Center, 11350 Charest.
Coaches in the area who have further questions may direct them to Coach Decker who can be reached at 893-5520.

Salem is playoff bound

Rocks remain undefeated

Plymouth Salem's football team tried to put a little adversity in its way to a scheduled showdown with Farmington Harrison for the championship of the Western Lakes Activities Association. That game is Oct. 30.
But the Rocks, despite losing three fumbles (two of which led to Livonia Bentley scores) overcame their own mistakes to take a 20-12 victory Friday over the Bulldogs.
The Rocks, who kept their record unblemished, take on Walled Lake Central this week, and while Coach Tom Moshimer admits a victory would do nothing to tarnish the Rocks' standing as divisional champions, it would allow Salem to begin to meet some pre-season goals.
"At the beginning of the year," the veteran coach said, "we wanted to do three things: win the league title, make the state playoffs and win all our games."

A win over Walled Lake, followed by a victory over Harrison, the leader in the Western division of the league, could go a long way toward putting Salem in the playoffs.
The Rocks are ranked fourth in their division, which includes Monroe and Edsel Ford, both of which won weekend football games, and Westland John Glenn, which lost to Livonia Franklin.
Salem, too, came close to joining the ranks of the beaten. The Rocks, however, scored two quick touchdowns in the first quarter and added another score in the third quarter, before hanging on to the win.
Scott Jurek rammed the ball over from the 1-yard line on Salem's first possession, taking advantage of Jeff Arnold's 15-yard pass reception from David Haut, which gave the Rocks some breathing room on the field.
Salem didn't give Bentley much room to do anything, holding the Bulldogs on the next series of downs, and after Bentley was forced to punt, Jurek, Haut and Dave Bunch shoved the ball 38 yards downfield with Bunch taking the ball into the endzone from the four.

Bentley, which battled in the second quarter, got on the scoreboard in the third, using Salem fumble to gain possession and to cut the Rocks' margin to 14-6. Steve Tenerovich forced the fumble and Mike Pomaranski picked up the loose ball and ran it 40 yards for the Bulldogs' first touchdown.
But Salem got that one back when Dave Haut turned an option into a 72-yard touchdown jaunt. Bentley added its final score in the third quarter, turning an interception into six points.
Haut led the Salem offense, collecting 91 yards in nine carries. Jurek added 75 yards to the Rocks'

192 ground yardage. Salem was rolling through the airways as well, as the Rocks completed four passes for 71 yards.
Moshimer praised Bentley's performance, even as he was looking ahead to this week's contest with Central.
"Bentley just came at us with all kinds of different looks. They jumped in and out of defenses, and, to some extent, it worked," the coach said. But he added the different alignments helped prepare the Rocks for upcoming competition. "With the changes, we had to be prepared. Our players know that."
Moshimer said the attitude of his players is very good. "You could sense they are taking this week's game very seriously. They know they have to win if they want to attain the goals we have set."

Walled Lake Central, which two weeks ago was undefeated in conference play, has dropped two straight games and brings a 3-3 record into Friday's contest.

Best game of year

Canton whips Western, 27-3

Unfortunately for Walled Lake Western, Plymouth Canton finally put it all together.
Coach Rich Barr's Chiefs put on their best show of the season to humble Walled Lake Western 27-3 and move into second place in the Western Division of the newly-formed Western Lakes Football Conference.
"I felt that this was our best game of the year," Barr said. "And, if it were not for the one mistake that led to the Walled Lake field goal, I would not hesitate to say it was an excellent over-all performance for our kids."
Barr stressed his Chiefs would have to come up with a similar effort Friday night at Stevenson to beat a usually tough Livonia team. "I expect a close game over there. They're 3-3, just like we are, and if we don't make the mistakes and keep the momentum going, we'll be in good shape."

Canton scored in each of the quarters to bury Walled Lake. With quarterback Pat Murphy at the throttle, the Chiefs got on the scoreboard early in the first quarter when the senior QB connected on a 19-yard TD pass to Bob Wasczenski.
Matt Santilli booted the extra point to make it 7-0.
Then, Canton widened the margin late in the initial half as Wasczenski gave his team excellent field position when he returned a punt to the Western 40-yard line, going 20 yards with 1:30 left. Murphy this time teamed with Ron Rienas on a 21-yard pass that left them short three yards for the TD.
The Murphy-to-Rienas combination covered the rest of the distance on the next play.
Murphy, who completed eight of 15 passes for the evening, again clicked with Wasczenski in the third quarter as he fired a 49-yard TD strike to lift the Chiefs into the lead 20-0. Santilli's bid for the PAT was blocked.

The Chiefs wrapped up the scoring with a Jody Smith to Marty Burton TD pass that covered 17-yards in the fourth quarter. Ralph Fitzgerald kicked the extra point.
Western averted the shutout in the last period when they came up with an interception and, after three unsuccessful plays, decided to go for a 35-yard field goal booted by their outstanding tailback, Paul Imms.
The Chiefs got 95 yards on the goroung from Chuck Davis, while Murphy's eight completions were good for an additional 167 yards and three touchdowns. He has 11 on the season. Wasczenski has caught eight of those TDs.
Canton received outstanding individual defensive performances from end Dan Schacht, tackles Don Page and Don Cruse as well as Wain Yeoung, Rodney Williams and Santilli.

It's now or never for Huron

It may be now or never for New Boston Huron's Chiefs.
Losing their sixth consecutive football game of the season to Carlson last Friday, coach Jamie Hinojosa's gridders clash with Airport Friday night at home, and the two teams will be seeking their first win of the 1982 season.
"I think if you look at this thing realistically, this may be the last chance we have to win a ball game this year," Hinojosa said. "They (Airport) lost nine players last year and also lost six this season to injuries, so they're hurting as bad as we are."
"So, I feel the match-up will decide which team will be left in the cellar of the league."
After Friday night's Airport confrontation, a game set aside for the Chiefs' Homecoming, Huron will face title contender, Riverview on Oct. 29 and will wrap up the year at Ypsilanti Lincoln a week later.
Last Friday, Huron was no match for Carlson which destroyed the Chiefs 33-14. The Chiefs also lost their senior linebacker and tailback, Jeff Hinojosa, the coach's brother, to a torn ligament in the knee.
Carlson chalked up all 33 of its points in the first two quarters, then

Now or never for Chiefs

Little may they have realized at the beginning of the 1982 campaign that near the end of the road would find still searching for their first win. New Boston Huron's coaching staff, Butch Gubbini (from left), head coach let loose its second stringers against the Chiefs who have a handful of players on the injury list.

Huron got on the scoreboard when A.J. Richardson scooped up a misfired lateral and raced 85 yards for the touchdown early in the fourth quarter. Also in the quarter,

A.J. directed a 65-yard drive than ended with sophomore runningback Gary Holder sprinting into the Carlson end zone from the 5-yard line.

Coach, it's rough out there

Unable to get his offense off the ground, quarterback Terry Roache (2) confers with head coach Norb Glover during one of the undecisive moments of the clash Friday night against visiting Woodhaven. The Eagles committed seven turnovers and Woodhaven cashed in two blocked Romulus punts that setup up touchdowns in a 14-0 victory over the hosts. The loss also spoiled it for a Homecoming crowd that was looking to break a "jinx". Romulus has yet to win on their home field at North Junior High since switching to play under the lights. The senior high didn't have that accommodation.

Ten Pin Topics

About some real bowling heroes

By JIM WRUBLEWSKI

As bowlers we all too often feel that the only worthy accomplishment is a super high score or an especially difficult shot. We tend to ignore some of the real achievements that our fellow bowlers realize.

There are no doubts that the high 200 game or 700 series is something we dream about. But what about the junior and senior bowler or the physically handicapped?

It doesn't take the perfect game to provide their thrills and any sense of accomplishment is just as great.

Wayne Bowl currently has a league for the blind bowler and all the necessary facilities (guide bars, bowling balls, shoes, etc.) are available. The league bowls on Saturdays at 12:30 p.m. and is in need of additional bowlers. If you know of anyone who might be interested, call Lillie Marbury, president, at 277-4491.

Virginia Kelley, secretary of this league, informs us that, 127 average, partially blind, Robert Campbell converted the impossible 7-10 split on his way to a 190 game and, totally blind, Catherine Fudge, who is currently carrying a 65 average, contributed her share by going 90 pins over average for a 285 series.

In other action at Wayne Bowl, Dewey Mitchell had 9 strikes in-a-row for 278, Rick Wilson went 114 pins over average for 254, 157 average Robert White hit 202-221-223 for 646, Joel Arrington hitting a 665, 167 average Mike Barnes with a 633 series, and Jim Roth hitting 636 on games of 235-194-207.

Super Bowl seniors action had Jim Risher hitting 241, Bill Heroe 225, and Gene Sund with 222.

In other leagues at that site, Joe Adorjan rolled a respectable 269 game and for the ladies Pam Fair did quite well with a 224 game. Darlene Lighon, at a 154 average, had games of 176-220-212 for 608 and 160 average Diane Byk hit 623 on games of 183-244-196.

Town & Country Lanes was the site of some exceptionally high games this week when Joe Panik teased perfection with a 299 game and Nancy Niva went 120 pins over her average by hitting 276.

At Fiesta Lanes, 72-year-old, Annis Wilson went well past her 106 average on games of 135-170-140 for a 445 series. At the opposite end of the age range 15-year-old, 138 average, Jeff Payne had a 221 game for 513.

played our hearts out, but sometimes it's just not enough." Both Gordon and eight-year Franklin head coach Armand Vigna had their teams primed for this game, one that might lead to not only the league title but also had a definite bearing on the state championship playoff picture.

Franklin won the coin toss to begin the game and the Patriots came out as they have done all season: throwing the football. Quarterback Rich Popp (5-10, 198, Sr.), a strong candidate for All-State honors, has thrown for over 700 yards this season. He has a bevy of receivers from which to choose: Rich Wood (5-10, 150, Sr.), Bob Stebbins (6-4, 210, Sr.), and Chris Lewis (5-10, 168, Sr.). Gordon feels that "Popp is an excellent quarterback, the best one we've faced."

Glenn's defense, which had not given up a point in league competition this season, stymied the Patriot attack through most of the first quarter. Brian Grassel broke up two Popp passes and the defensive line held the Franklin rushing game to a few hard-earned yards. But you can't keep a good quarterback down for long.

Popp, who has a "quick release" and finds his receivers well, found Stebbins in the end zone for a 12-yard touchdown pass with just 55 seconds left in the first quarter. The extra point looked like a pinball as it bounced off crossbar and upright. Franklin led, 6-0.

The Rockets got their offense moving early in the second quarter. As quarterback Jeff Hawley, who has shown steady improvement all season long, led his team down the field. Using Todd Jennings and Don Forchione, they moved methodically down the field. At the two-yard line, Forchione took the hand-off from Hawley and rambled into the end zone for his first touchdown of the year. Jennings' extra point made it, 7-6, and Glenn looked like their offensive machine was about to run as it had through the first five games.

Defense was the key to the rest of the first half as neither side refused to budget. Franklin wanted the game kept close and Glenn wanted to add points to their slim lead. Led by linebacker Bryan Dye and defensive end John Ericson, the Rockets held Popp in check, while Stebbins and Jeff Cumpston (6-2, 186, Jr.) led the Patriot defense in stopping the Rocket offense. Coach Gordon said, "Their defense is good."

The first half ended with the Rockets clinging to a slim 7-6 lead and both teams went to their locker-rooms to make adjustments for the second half.

Glenn's defense, which had allowed only 7 points through the first five games, came out in the second half intent on holding the Patriots and giving their own offense a chance to score some more points.

However, Popp had other ideas. The senior signal caller, "who gets rid of the ball before the secondary is set," caught Glenn not ready when he completed a pass to Lewis, who raced the rest of the way to score. Franklin led, 12-7, and chose to go for two, but the attempted conversion failed. That left Glenn with-in striking distance of taking the lead.

Glenn got its chance to take the lead several times in the third quarter, but Franklin's defense "made the plays when they had to." One of the keys for the Patriots was moving Stebbins to play opposite Walker. Stebbins knows about the rivalry between these two teams, having played in six previous contests in both football and basketball. Said Coach Vigna, "We made an important defensive switch when we moved Stebbins to the left side. We knew John Glenn liked to run behind tackle Jack Walker, and Stebbins helped contain their running game." It worked, because Glenn was held to only 35 yards in the second half on the ground.

Glenn refused to fold and Franklin knew they wouldn't. Time after time, the Rockets had opportunities to score but Franklin stopped them. The Rockets resorted to their bag of tricks, including the old flea-flicker and a couple ends-around but were unable to crack a defense that had allowed only 13 points on the season.

Franklin put the icing on the cake at the 5:03 mark when Popp hit Wood on a 37-yard strike down the right sideline. This time, the extra point was good and Franklin, led 19-7.

Glenn wasn't through yet, though.

Recovering two fumbles in those last five minutes, they attempted to make a game of it. Two quick passes to tight end Ericson started the Rockets moving but the Patriot defense rose to the occasion as they had all day and stopped the Rocket comeback attempt.

Franklin ended a four-year dry spell at the hands of the Rockets and probably added more fuel to the intense rivalry between the two schools. For players like Stebbins, Walker, Jennings, Hawley and Todd Stein, they have two more shots at each other in basketball this winter and both football teams will be back at it next fall to resume this great rivalry on the gridiron.

Coach Gordon was "proud of our players. It was a tough thing to go through." He was also proud "of the effort they gave."

Now the Rockets must regroup for next Friday's game against Redford Union, a team described as one "that's gotten better and better each week and are playing quite well right now."

Franklin has three tough games left — next week against Garden City, October 30 against Dearborn Fordson, and concluding their season against Livonia Bentley.

The Junior Varsity Rockets fared a little better than their varsity counterparts last Thursday defeating Redford Union, a team described as one "that's gotten better and better each week and are playing quite well right now."

Elite 1,000 mile club

As a part of the summer conditioning program for Westland John Glenn harriers, the "1,000-mile club" was established as an incentive for summer running and conditioning. These four runners earned the distinction of reaching that plateau, and Glenn principal Thomas Svitkovich (at right) presented the runners with club shirts. The recipients are senior Todd Stockwell, (from left to right), sophomore Frank

Shelly, senior captain Tom Gibson and sophomore Tod Lilla. Also pictured is cross country coach Ed Phillips (at left). Shelly and Lilla also earned the honor of becoming the first sophomores to receive the "1,000-mile club" shirts, while Stockwell and Gibson are repeaters. With the addition of Shelly and Lilla to the club, the membership of that elite group has expanded to 20 runners.

The chase is on

Romulus' Eddy Eddings (71) collars a would-be Woodhaven punt returner Friday night during the Eagles' unsuccessful Homecoming. Although the defense was there, Romulus couldn't come up with any consistent offense to stop their visitors who chalked up their sixth straight victory, 14-0. The loss dipped the Eagles' season record to 3-3 on the year and left them unless on the home field over the past two years.

So what's new?

Wayne gals swim like best team in Great Lakes 8

Wayne Memorial's young and talented swim team made it 2-in-a-row in the Great Lakes 8 Swim Conference last week at the expense of Lincoln Park.

With Mary Batterson claiming two individual first places and sharing in the 440-yard freestyle relay victory, Wayne stopped the Parkers 77-49 to remain undefeated in league competition.

The victory also was the Zebras' fourth in seven starts for coach Jim McPartlin's swimmers.

"We graduated a lot of kids last year," coach McPartlin noted, "but I like to think we have a young and talented team this year. Our swimmers are coming around."

Miss Batterson turned in a 25 seconds flat in winning the 50-yard freestyle, then covered the 100-yard freestyle in 57.4 for her second win of the afternoon. She teamed with Kim Walls, Mary Beth Henson and Kim Tilley to take the 400 freestyle in 4:38.2.

The Zebras will travel on Thursday to meet their third league foe of the campaign. The meet is scheduled for 4 p.m.

'The old jinx'

Woodhaven, 8 turnovers spoil Romulus homecoming

Whether the turnovers were caused by a "jinx" or were due to their ineptness, Romulus hit the nadir of their football season before a shivering Homecoming crowd which saw Coach Norbert Glover's Eagles crash 14-0 to an undefeated Woodhaven contingent Friday night.

Romulus is yet to win on its home field at North Junior High, a field they moved to a year ago to take advantage of the lights for night games.

Both Woodhaven touchdowns were results of blocked Romulus punts. The Eagles also handed the ball over eight times on turnovers. Let's correct that to say, they fumbled eight times and lost the ball twice. However, those fumbles took the wind out of their confidence.

"No, I don't think it's the jinx," Coach Glover said. "but I do think that are kids are having problems adjusting to the new system we have installed. And I believe it's just a matter of time when we iron out the kinks."

The Scanton brothers - Dave and John - were responsible for Woodhaven's TDs. Dave scored after a blocked punt, recovered on the Eagle six-yard line. He went in from the three. John tallied from the 11-yard line.

Trailing 7-0 at the half, Romulus appeared ready to tie the score early in the third quarter when quarterback Terry Roche directed a midfield march that wound up at the Woodhaven 19-yard line where the Eagles handed the ball over via a fumble.

That was the only time the entire evening that Romulus managed to penetrate inside the Woodhaven 20-yard line.

Woodhaven scored an insurance TD in the third.

The victory was the 6th in a row for the visitors, while Romulus' record dipped to 3-3 on the year. Coach Glover's Eagles clash with Oak Park (away) Friday afternoon and expect to find another tough battle awaiting them.

"Woodhaven beat them (Oak Park) 27-0," he said, "so I feel that the Parkers are another team of the future. But we can't take them or anyone lightly. It's a case where whichever team wants to win the most, will probably do so."

After Friday's match-up, the Eagles have a winless Thurston (Redford) and an excellent Dearborn Heights Robichaud to contend with.

Against Woodhaven, Romulus received an outstanding defensive performance from Gary Hardwick, who counted 10 tackles for the game. Also getting the job done for the Eagles was tackle Shawn Perkins.

Woodhaven, however, held the Eagle ballcarriers to less than 70 yards rushing and 27 yards passing on a 4 of 19 effort.

Signaling bad news

As the lines separate to see the ref's decision, Romulus High gridders (dark jersey) receive the bad news — one of the Scanton brothers had scored. When it was all over, Coach Norbert Glover's Eagles had a 14-0 defeat tacked to their record and a Homecoming crowd on hand watched the setback. The loss added credence to the myth that maybe North is a "jinx." The Eagles haven't won on the home field since switching from the high school to the junior high field.

Inkster resident slain

Inkster police are hunting for the gunman who shot and killed a resident early Saturday morning in the victim's front yard.

Police say they have no suspects in the killing of 26-year-old Albin Joe Burell, who resided with his mother in a single-family dwelling at 298 Isabelle.

Police said Mrs. Burell found the body of her son in the front yard about 5:30 Saturday morning. He was fully dressed and was shot in the face.

"We do not have any suspects or a motive in this case," said Inspector James Buckley of the Inkster Police Department.

How sweet it is

There's a good reason why New Boston's Etta Willhite is smiling. She learned from apple-pie contest chairman Gary Bates (at left) that her pie was the best at the third annual Huron Township Applefest held recently. For her delectable efforts, Mrs. Willhite was presented a check for $100. And you can make a lot of apple pies with that.

CITY OF ROMULUS

ORDINANCE

AN ORDINANCE TO ENABLE THE CITY OF ROMULUS, MICHIGAN TO COMPLY WITH THE REQUIREMENTS OF FEDERAL LAW-PUBLIC ACT 92-500, AND APPLICABLE FEDERAL REGULATIONS, AND TO COMPLY WITH THE REQUIREMENTS OF THE SETTLEMENT AGREEMENT OF THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA -vs- CITY OF DETROIT, et al, CIVIL ACTION #771100, UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT, EASTERN DISTRICT OF MICHIGAN, SOUTHERN DIVISION, AND FURTHER, TO REQUIRE USERS OF THE PUBLIC WASTEWATER SYSTEM TO PAY A SURCHARGE WHICH REFLECTS THE COMMERCIAL AND INDUSTRIAL USERS EQUITABLE SHARE OF THE COSTS OF WASTEWATER TREATMENT IN EXCESS OF THE STRENGTH OF DOMESTIC SEWAGE.

IT IS HEREBY ORDAINED BY THE CITY OF ROMULUS:

PURPOSE AND OBJECTIVE: This ordinance has as its purpose the protection of public health and safety and because of the widely varying quality characteristics of the sewage discharged by different users of the public sewer and the publicly owned treatment works, it is the object of this ordinance to impose sewage charges which reflect the cost of treating sewage strength factors as well as sewage volume. These charges to commercial and industrial users will be in the form of a payment called a surcharge and will reflect industries' equitable costs of wastewater treatment in excess of the strength of domestic sewage. Sewage charges will be based on a volume rate and surcharge based on volume of discharge and the strength of BOD, suspended solids and phosphorus or other pollutants present in the wastewater. In the event other pollutants are required to be surcharged under this ordinance, authorized variances, or by special arrangement with the owner of the publicly owned treatment works the rules and regulations being adopted herein will apply, said rules and regulations being on file with the City Clerk.

AUTHORITY: This ordinance is adopted pursuant to and in accordance with the requirements of Federal Law-Public Act 92-500, and applicable Federal Regulations, the requirements of the Settlement Agreement in United States of America -vs- City of Detroit, et al, Civil Action #771100.

DEFINITIONS: Unless the context specifically indicates otherwise, the meanings of the terms used in this ordinance shall be as follows:

A. BIOCHEMICAL OXYGEN DEMAND (BOD) shall mean the quantity of oxygen utilized in the biochemical oxidation of organic matter under standard laboratory procedure, five (5) days at 20 degrees centigrade expressed in terms of weight and concentration (milligrams per liter (MC/L), as measured by standard methods.

B. COMMERCIAL USER shall mean all non-domestic sources of in-direct discharge other than industrial users, as defined herein including, but not limited to the following. A publicly or privately owned facility where persons are engaged in the exchange or sale of goods or services, hospitals, retail establishments, schools and facilities operated by local and state governments.

C. INDIRECT DISCHARGE shall mean the discharge or the introduction of non-domestic pollutants from any source regulated under Section 307(b) or (c) of the Federal Water Pollution Control Act, P.L. 92-500, as amended, into the public waste treatment system.

D. INDUSTRIAL USER shall mean a source of indirect discharge under regulations issued pursuant to Section 402, of The Act. (33 USC 1342), which source originates from, but is not limited to, facilities engaged in industry, manufacturing, business, trade or research, including the development, recovery or processing of natural resources.

E. INDUSTRIAL WASTE shall mean any liquid, solid or gaseous waste or form of energy or combination thereof resulting from any process of industry, manufacturing, business, trade or research, including the development, recovery or processing of natural resources.

F. P means Phosphorous in the waste expressed in terms of milligrams per liter (P.P.M.)

G. POLLUTANT shall mean any dredged spoil, solid waste, incinerator residue, sewage, garbage, sewage sludge, munitions chemical wastes, biological materials, radioactive materials, heat, wrecked or discarded equipment, rock, sand, cellar dirt and industrial, municipal, and agricultural waste discharged into water.

H. PUBLIC SEWER shall mean a common sewer controlled by a governmental agency or public utility.

To erase $27 million deficit

County to debate tax increase

While struggling to make ends meet until Nov. 30, the Wayne County Board of Commissioners, through its Ways and Means Committee, has received from the County Board of Auditors a report recommending an appropriation of $283.1 million for the new fiscal year beginning Dec. 1.

The report is calculated to eliminate a $22.3 million deficit by Nov. 30, 1983, and among its recommendations are proposals to close the D.J. Healy Home for abused and neglected children, and a .2383 millage increase.

Receipt of the report last week was during the first of a series of budget hearings this month and throughout October by the Committee, which plans to submit its own recommendations for adoption by the full Board in early November.

Also last week in a meeting subsequent to receipt of the budget report, the commissioners scheduled a public hearing on the proposed millage increase. Under state statute (Act 5 of Public Acts of 1982, MCL 211.24e), the Board cannot decide on the proposed tax increase without first conducting a public hearing.

The hearing will be on Friday, Oct. 22, in the 13th floor auditorium of the City-County Building in downtown Detroit.

For county homeowners, the levy would amount to 23 cents per $1000 of assessed property valuation. If put into effect, it would raise the taxation rate to the maximum 7.07 mills presently allowed, and would generate approximately $4.4 million. Closing of the D.J. Healy Home would save about $1.5 million, according to the auditors' report.

If the commissioners choose to levy the additional tax, they must wait until at least a week after the public hearing to take action, again a requirement of state statute.

Regarding the proposed tax increase, Commissioners William J. Runco and James J. Rashid have expressed opposition. Said Runco: "It would be an inequity. If we vote to adopt this, we would be assessing some homes above fair market value. In some areas, homes would be assessed $28 to $30 more, while others would be assessed only $4 to $5 additional."

Those who have spoken against closing of the D.J. Healy home include Commissioners Arthur M. Carter and Kay L. Beard. Carter said he is prepared to vote for the auditors' recommendations in every respect except for closing of the home, and Mrs. Beard said, "I have great reservations."

The auditors said that if the home is closed, the children would be housed temporarily in foster homes until permanent residences are available. Typically, about 35 children are there each day awaiting more permanent quarters.

Also last week the commissioners agreed to submit the auditors' budget report to the State Municipal Finance Commission as prerequisite for borrowing an additional $10 million for payrolls and other expenditures until Dec. 1. Already the County has borrowed $10 million through sale of tax anticipation notes, but wants to borrow another $10 million to assure timely payment of financial obligations.

I. SUSPENDED SOLIDS shall mean the total suspended matter that floats on the surface of, or is suspended in, water, wastewater or other liquids, and which is removable by laboratory filtering as measured according to standard methods.

J. WASTEWATER or SEWAGE shall mean spent water which may be a combination of the liquid and water-carried wastes from residences, commercial buildings, industrial plants, institutions, or other land uses, including drainage water inadvertently present in said waste.

K. WASTEWATER SYSTEM or SEWER SYSTEM shall mean any part, or all of the property, structures, equipment, sewers materials and/or appurtenances used in conjunction with the collection and disposal of wastewater, including the publicly owned treatment work (POTW).

It is ordained that the Schedule of Industrial Waste Pollutant Strength Surcharges is hereby adopted and made effective for users of the wastewater system of the City of Romulus. Said surcharges to be computed as follows:

COMPUTATION OF INDUSTRIAL WASTE POLLUTANT STRENGTH SURCHARGE: The industrial waste pollutant strength surcharge shall be computed in accordance with the following formula:

SC = 0.0624 V a (BOD-250) + b (TSS-300) + c (P-12) + d (FOD-100)

WHERE:

SC = Pollutant strength surcharge fee in dollars for the billing period.
V = Volume of waste discharged in the billing period in Mcf (1,000 cubic feet).

"BOD" = Five-day biochemical oxygen demand of the waste expressed in milligrams per liter (ppm).

"TSS" = Total suspended solids in the waste expressed in milligrams per liter (ppm).

"P" = Phosphorus in the waste expressed in milligrams per liter.

"FOG" = Fats, oils and grease in the waste expressed in milligrams per liter.

a, b, c, d = Surcharge rates, $/pound for treating BOD, TSS and P respectively.

0.0624 = Factor which converts Mcf to MM lbs.

	Downriver	Detroit
a =	$0.082/lb.	$.088
b =	0.083/lb.	.121
c =	1.321/lb.	2.00
d =		.030

For purposes of surcharge computation, the values of pollutant strengths shall not be less than the allowable values, the allowable values are:

BOD - 250
TSS - 300
P - 12

The total sewerage charge for a particular industry would be the sum of the base flow charge and the surcharge would be calculated from the following formula:

$$UC = V (R) + SC$$

WHERE:

UC = Total sewerage charge for the billing period in dollars.

V = Volume of waste discharged in billing period of Mcf.

R = Basic flow sewage rate is community rate effective January 1, 1980.

SC = Surcharge in dollars as computed above.

Said standards, rules and regulations shall be as established from time to time by the County and/or its designated agent.

SEVERABILITY: If any section, paragraph, clause, or provision of the ordinance for any reason held to be invalid or unconstitutional the invalidity or unconstitutionality of such section, paragraph, clause, or provision shall not affect any of the remaining provisions of this ordinance.

Corn Spoon Bread

½ cup butter

 1 cup sour cream
 1 can whole kernel corn, drained (8 oz.)
 1 can creamed corn (8 oz.)

Swiss Green Beans

2 tablespoons margarine
2 tablespoons flour
½ cup milk
1 teaspoon salt — dash pepper
1 tablespoon minced onion
½ cup sour cream
¼ pound Swiss cheese, cubed
2 packages (10 oz.) frozen green beans cooked and drained
⅓ cup toasted slivered almonds

Melt the margarine in a heavy skillet over low heat. Stir in the flour and add milk and cook until thick. Stir in sugar, salt, pepper, onion, sour cream and Swiss cheese. Continue to cook, stirring constantly, until cheese is melted.

Turn into 1½ qt. baking dish. Sprinkle with almonds. Bake in preheated 350 degree oven for 25 minutes.

Will serve six.

Sole Amandine

2 pounds fresh sole
¾ cup butter or margarine
1 teaspoon salt
Dash pepper
½ cup flour
½ cup blanched silvered almonds
2 tablespoons chopped parsley

Melt butter or margarine in large frying pan. Cut fish into serving-size portions. Sprinkle with salt and pepper. Roll in flour. Saute in butter. When fish is brown on one side turn carefully and brown the other side. Cooking time will be 5 to 7 minutes, depending on thickness of fish. Remove fish from pan and place on a hot platter. Fry almonds until lightly browned. Sprinkle almonds and parsley over fish. Serves 6 to 8.

Hot Crab Dip

Mix all ingredients thoroughly in blender. Refrigerate if not using immediately. To serve: Pour into ovenproof serving dish. Heat at low temperature until warm. Serve with crackers, raw vegetables or chunks of bread.

Shrimp Appetizer

1 lb. small cooked shrimp
2 sticks unsalted butter (creamed)
1 garlic clove (mashed)
½ teaspoon tarragon leaves
Salt & pepper to taste

Gradually puree shrimp in blender. Slowly add butter and seasoning. Blend until smooth. Serve with crackers or use pastry tube to pipe onto toast.

different, "a real southern recipe." While she cautions it isn't something you can pick up in your fingers and eat despite the bread label, it really is unique.

½ cup grated Swiss cheese

Preheat oven to 375 degrees and melt butter in baking dish. Pour eggs, sour cream and corn mixed into muffin mix into buttered dish. Make sure corns and mix are blended completely before pouring into baking pan.

Spoon bread should be very moist. Just before baking is complete, sprinkle top with cheese. Bake at 375 degrees for 35 minutes.

In the kitchen with...

Carol Bodenmiller is a lady who obviously knows what she's talking about, and when she offers recipes that she guarantees are real culinary treats, she's not fooling. To back her claim, Carol sent samples of the Pumpkin Pie Cake to our office — and was unanimously voted as cook of the month by the hungry news staff.

Bodenmiller is serving her fourth year on the Canton Township Board of Trustees and works full time as an associate at R.G. and G.R. Harris Funeral Home in Garden City. She is also a member of Cherry Hill United Methodist Church and a delegate to SEMCOG.

Carol Bodenmiller

Her two teenager daughters, Jessica, 17 and Katherine, 14 keep her unoccupied hours full.

Carol noted that these two recipes were given to her by a co-worker, Betty Karschnik, and that they have received rave reviews from all who've been treated to them. We'll second that opinion.

Pumpkin Pie Cake

Blend well
Sprinkle over top of pie mixture.

Bake at, 350 degrees for 50 minutes or until done.
Serve with cool whip.

Carol Bodenmiller

1 pkg. yellow cake mix (reserve 1 cup).
Add ½ cup melted butter and 1 egg.
Mix — pat in bottom of 9x13" pan.

1 large can Libby's pumpkin pie mix
2 eggs
¾ cup milk
Beat well and pour into crust

Take reserved cup of cake mix and add
¼ cup soft oleo, 1 tsp cinnamon
⅓ cup sugar

Zucchini Squares

Mix together the following ingredients:

3 eggs
1 cup oil
2 cups sugar
2 cups grated zucchini
3 tsp. vanilla

Add to mixture:
2½ cups flour
¼ tsp. baking powder
1 tsp. salt
2 tsp. soda
1 cup nuts

Pour into large cookie sheet (ungreased)
Bake 350 for 20-25 minutes.

Frosting:
Blend together:
8 oz. cream cheese, 1 stick oleo, 1 tsp. vanilla and 3 or more cups powdered sugar.
Spread over top — cut into bars to serve.

Sylvia Skrel

The mother of two married sons, Sylvia is a full-time state lawmaker, representing the 36th District. She usually commutes between her Westland home and the State Capitol where she is the assistant minority whip in the House of Representatives and a member of the Special Joint Committee on Aging. She also is a member of the Advisory Committee on the Legal Assistance Program at Madonna College. Her hobbies include music — both listening and dancing — and knitting.

Sylvia confided that her pineapple pie recipe was given to her at her typical "polish" wedding more than 30 years ago and is still a favorite with all who've tried it.

Pineapple Pie

No. 2 can of crushed Hawaiian pineapple
½ can water
¾ cup sugar
¼ teaspoon salt

Bring to boiling pineapple and water; add sugar and salt. Continue to boil.

2 eggs
½ can water
2 heaping teaspoons corn starch

Beat eggs; add water and beat. Add cornstarch and beat. Add latter mixture to pineapple mixture and boil until thick. If it thickens too fast add water. Let cool, then pour into a baked pie shell.

In the kitchen with... Sue Pickering

As Counseling Department Chairman at Oakland Community College and wife of Westland Mayor Charles Pickering, Sue finds less time to spend in the kitchen than she formerly did. She still has a few tricks up her sleeve when it comes to entertaining, however, as her proffered recipe will prove.

The Spinach Bread Dip was a real favorite during campaign time, she noted and she's given the recipe away so many times she's got it memorized. "I like it because you can keep the ingredients in the refrigerator and it goes together very quickly for entertaining," she said.

Children Terry, 14 and Leigh Ann, almost 12, might think they are the cooks who ought to be featured, Sue laughed, as her kitchen time is limited.

Along with her full time job, Sue is very active in the Wayne-Westland Arts Association, worked on the city Junior Miss pageant and the Westland Spring Festival. She spends all her free time on her favorite hobby, "my children."

Spinach Bread Dip

1 — 10 ounce package of frozen chopped spinach, thawed and well drained.
1 cup mayonnaise
1 cup sour cream
1 can water chestnuts, chopped
1 package Knorr's vegetable soup mix

2 Tablespoons parmesan cheese
1 round loaf of unsliced Italian white bread

Hollow out loaf of bread and cube pieces removed. Mix all other ingredients well and place inside bread loaf. Use cubes for dipping.

Equilla Bradford

Equilla Bradford

Dr. Equilla Bradford, superintendent of the Westwood School District since 1979, is a lady who faces her executive decisions head on, and tackles her culinary tasks the same way.

She notes that the recipe for Chicken Broccoli Pie is not only economical, it's easy and satisfying.

Dr. Bradford recommends a tossed salad, cranberry relish and apple rings to provide a complete meal with the one dish.

Chicken Broccoli Pie

Ingredients:
3 Chickens — cut up and boiled (preferably breasts and thighs)
3 lbs. broccoli (fresh or frozen — chopped)
3 cans Cream of Chicken soup
4 Tablespoons mayonnaise (Hellmann's)
½ Teaspoon curry powder
2 Teaspoons salt
Dash of pepper
1 lemon (juice only)
6 slices of white bread (crust removed and cut in quarter sections)
2 tablespoons melted butter

Procedure:
1. Boil chicken until tender, debone, skin and chop.
2. Cook broccoli, then place it in a two quart casserole.

3. Cover broccoli with the chopped cooked chicken.
4. In a separate bowl, mix soup, mayonnaise, curry powder, salt, lemon juice and melted butter. Pour mixture over chicken, arrange bread over chicken, dot with butter and bake at 350 degrees 40 to 45 minutes, or until bread is brown and crusty.

In the kitchen with ...

Mary Lou Carey's whirlwind schedule leaves her little time to maintain the kind of culinary standards her family is used to, so she's learned to adapt. Her Vegetable Pie, courtesy of another township clerk, accommodates her needs as she can divide the recipe, bake both pies and freeze one to re-heat in the microwave for luncheon guests.

Mary Lou has been Treasurer in Huron Township

Mary Lou Carey

"off and on" for nine years and is a member of Michigan Township Association, and president of the Wayne County Municipal and Township Clerk's Association. An active Democrat, "politics is really my hobby."

Vegetable Pie

Pie Crust for 2 crust pie — unbaked
1 lb. Bob Evans Hot Sausage
1 medium onion
½ lb fresh mushrooms — sliced
1 10 oz. pkg. frozen broccoli
1 10 oz. pkg. frozen cauliflower
3 eggs
1 cup shredded cheddar cheese
1 cup shredded mozzarella cheese

Line 10" casserole (3" to 4" deep) with pie crust. Sauté sausage with onion, add mushrooms. Rinse frozen vegetables with HOT water. Layer sausage, onion and mushroom mixture in bottom of pie crust. Place cauliflower and broccoli on top of sausage mixture. Beat eggs until foamy, pour over vegetables. Put Cheddar Cheese on top of vegetables, then Mozzarella on top. Bake 1 hour at 350 degrees. Cool 10 minutes, cut in slices. Serves six.

Karen Norton

She served as a chaperone for the five UF torchlighter children this year and for several years

Chicken Maringo

1 2½-3 pound cup up chicken
1-16 ounce can tomatoes, broken up
½ cup frozen or canned small whole onions

1 clove garlic, minced
1 bay leaf
¼ cup dry sherry
½ teaspoon salt
½ teaspoon pepper
½ teaspoon thyme
4 ounces sliced fresh mushrooms
1 tablespoon cornstarch

Mary Lou Carey

has helped with the annual Project Health-O-Rama in the Western Wayne area. She also serves on the Wayne County Intermediate School District Advisory Board and Wayne-Westland Parent Advisory Committee. A member of the Wayne Literary Club, she also manages two apartment buildings.

Leona Van Buhler

Leona Van Buhler has a great deal of experience in the kitchen, although raising four children and acting at the executive director of the Belleville Area Chamber of Commerce don't leave her a great deal of time. Her offspring, Gwen Cleary, Gary, Janet and Joan along with husband Ray are fond of picnicing, camping and travel. These Burger Bundles fit right into any busy schedule.

Burger Bundles

1 cup herb-seasoned stuffing
1 pound ground beef
½ cup evaporated milk
1 can cream of mushroom soup
2 t. worcestershire sauce
1 T. catsup

Leona Van Buhler

Prepare stuffing mix. Mix ground beef with evaporated milk — divide into five patties. On waxed paper, flatten each patty to form a six-inch circle. Spoon ¼ cup stuffing in center of each. Draw edges over stuffing and seal. Place in 1½ qt. casserole. Combine soup, sauce and catsup. Heat until bubbly. Pour over meat. Bake uncovered in a moderate oven, 350 degrees, for 45 to 50 min. Makes 5 servings.

In the kitchen with... Justine Barns

Justine Barns, the president pro-tem of the Westland City Council, has offered a unique recipe for fruitcake that has been in her possession for more than 20 years.

"I originally got this from a friend of mine, who received it from her mother-in-law who was from Czechoslovakia," Barnes said. "It is expensive but it is very, very good. This will make two round fruitcakes with a white type cake, minus the very, very sweet taste of some fruitcake. Justine noted that she is so fond of this cake that she formerly made several batches during the holidays and used them as gifts for friends and acquaintances. Now, however, she makes the cake in loaf form and saves it for very special friends.

Barns is active in SEMCOG, a member of the executive committee, and on many other committees within the group. She is also an at-large representative of the Peoples Community Hospital Authority and a member of several committees of that group. She is also first vice-chairman of the Wayne County Charter Committee, which doesn't leave as much time for cooking as she formerly had.

She began her political career in 1963 and mixes her busy schedule with hobbies including needlepoint and her two granddaughters who live in St. Louis.

Justine Barns

Hungarian Fruit Cake

1 lb. mixed fruit
1/2 lb. cherries
1/2 lb. pineapple
1 lb. white raisins
1 cup wine, brandy or rum

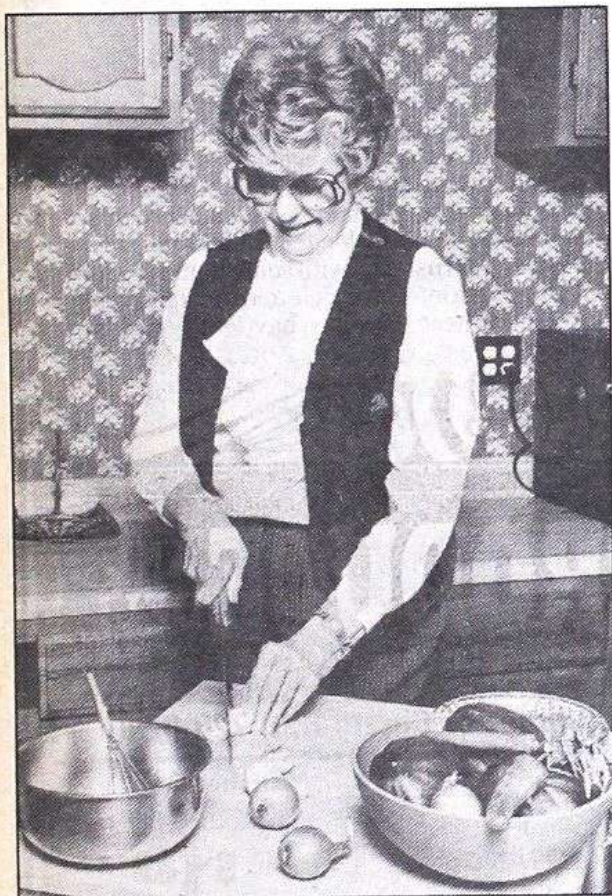

1 lb. butter
3/4 lb. sugar-powdered
7 egg yolks
1 lb. pecans shelled
4 cups flour

1 tsp. baking powder
1/2 tsp. salt
1/2 tsp. cinnamon
7 egg whites beaten stiffly

Cover first four ingredients with wine and let stand over night. Cream butter and sugar. Add egg yolks and beat well. Add fruit and nuts. Sift dry ingredients together and add to other mixture. Fold in egg whites. Bake in 250 degree oven for three hours. Makes two fruit cakes.

Beverly McAnally

Beverly McAnally

Bev McAnally's Mushroom Onion Pie is a pure delight, but Bev cautions, if adding bacon or sausage, be sure the meat is pre-cooked and drained.

Bev is the City of Romulus Treasurer and considers that a "full time job and then some". This is her second term in office although she served on the city council for six years.

She is also president of the Western Wayne County Treasurers' Association and a member of SEMCOG. She is a trained painter although she hasn't completed a canvas in three years. "I'm saving that for my old age."

Mushroom Onion Quiche

2 medium onions
10 small, 5 large mushroom caps
3 tablespoons butter
4 ounces Swiss cheese, shredded
2 tablespoons Parmesan cheese
2 eggs, beaten

3/4 cup milk or cream
1/2 teaspoon salt
